

Senior Ship Day At Baldwin Slated Friday, June 8

By JOHN BURTON
On Friday, June 8, 102 passenger buses will take approximately 180 Baldwin seniors for ship day at Camp Ohisea near Ponton for their annual senior get-together.
A variety of activities including canoeing, fishing, baseball, tennis, badminton, and swimming will be on the program. A large recreation judge will be used in case of rain. Camp Ohisea is where E. H. Hubbard, a junior advisor, spends his summers as director.
Arriving about 11 a. m., seniors will have free time until 1:30, then lunch to 1:50, and free time again until six. Supper is from six to 7:30 followed by square dancing for the average till nine, when buses will leave for Birmingham.

JAN KINDLEY was chairman of ship-day committee, with help from Roger Beebe, Ronald Fager, Ed Morgan, Joe Neff, Ken Worde, Nancy Squires, John Robertson, Kay Rosman, Barb Holbert, Mable Culler, Mary E. Kelly, Paul Trichel, Neil Lee, Lacey Elmer, Bud Reed, Tom Morgan, Betty Jones, Herb Kirby, Skip Hague, Phyllis Spurlock, and Sally Garwood.
Senior advisors accompanying the group are Mrs. Mary Hartwick, Dagnan Blinnich, Mrs. Claudia Hollock, Mrs. Joseph Larson, H. Ross Scrimgeour, and Robert Richards.

WALNUT LAKE NEWSLETTER

Peter Whims, president of student council, conducted the Memorial Day assembly. Elmer Palmer played a piece on the piano and Jerry Chalmers accompanied himself on the ukulele and sang two songs.
Sally Hanson, Barbara Sinclair and Sharon McKay played selections on the piano. Mrs. Louise Smith led the group in several songs.
The PTA award was given to the kindergarten and Miss Marie Votay told of the meaning of Memorial Day. Sharon McKay played the recessional march.

THE GARDEN CLUB met for a luncheon meeting Thursday and discussed fertilizers and observed the development of their plans. The second grade has their class project in the display cabinet in the hall this week.
Everyone is practicing for the races at the school picnic. New playground equipment has arrived. There is a pool for tennis, tennis, new sand for the high jump and a new blind box and posts for basketball.
Next Tuesday, June 12, there will be an assembly in the evening to commemorate the 25th birthday of Detroit. Each class will tell what has been learned about Detroit during the year. Mrs. Smith is preparing a musical portion which will include all children. All parents are urged to attend.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all seen—call the society editor about them.

Some Facts Regarding Christian Science

Christian Science is Christian. It is based on the teachings of Jesus as recorded in the Bible.
Christian Science is scientific. Spiritually logical and unflinchingly consistent, its prayers affirm and demonstrate man's true nature to be in accordance with God's perfection.
Christian Science is demonstrable. It supplies the needed answers and the needed evidence to the sincere seeker. A thoughtful study of the Christian Science textbook.
SCIENCE and HEALTH THE KEY TO THE SCIENCE by Mary Baker Eddy gives convincing assurance that this great Science of Christ is indeed the Comforter promised by Jesus.

Maple Tennis Team Fourth in State Meet

By GEORGE BOSWORTH
The Birmingham tennis team tied with Grand Rapids for fourth place in the state class B final tennis tournament at Kalamazoo last Friday and Saturday.
Roger Beebe and George Bosworth, first doubles, were the only

Maples to score points. In their opening match they easily whipped Claire McKoy and Bert Posthumus of Niles 6-1, 6-0. Playing well after a slow start, they finished a 7-5, 6-1 quarterfinal win over Paul Kiehn and Kalle Garrison of Adrian.
BEEBE AND BOSWORTH then lost to Dave Brown and Jules Hanolovsky of East Lansing 2-6, 2-6. The winners, who were first-seeded, later won in the doubles final.
The Maple's Woody Daré was beaten by Jim Beachum of East Lansing in a close match 7-5, 1-6. Peter Trees and Bob Appleford were outplayed by a second-seeded Jim Russell and Fred Dillno of Kalamazoo State high, 2-6, 3-6. Russell and Dillno were runners-up in the class B doubles competition.

Final scores were: East Lansing 7, Kalamazoo State high 6, Adrian 3.5, Birmingham and Grand Rapids 2.25, Dowagiac .5. Seven other schools entered but failed to score points.
The tennis team scored a pair of Eastern Michigan league victories last week with wins over Port Huron 5-0 and East Detroit 2-1.
