BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS

Some of the Kindergarten children are bringing toys from home to leave at school for next year's class to enjoy. Christa Palmer sent in her grandmother as a Decoration Day and Jerry Purdy spent the holiday in Caro visiting his grandparents. Jack Michael celebrated the day by going swimming.

FIRST AND SECOND graders are planning a trip to the Zoo during the week of June 11. Their teacher, Mrs. Evelyn Ayers, and five mothers will ride out the bus with them. They plan to leave the school at 9:30 a.m. After a tour around the Zoo park they will continue on toward the zoo.

Helpers for this week are sharing periodicals from the library. Ken Rakas, pencil sharpener, Josie Paulus, dusting, David Michael, ditch; water plants, Dick Beaubien.

New class officers in the third and fourth grades are Phillip Andrae, president and Richard Eggert, vice-president.

BROWNIES WHO became Girl Scouts at the Flag Day last week were Helen Cudini, Marilyn Bratton, Suzann Wallace, Linda Stevenson, Char Miller, Sony Sawyer and Jane Wilson. Mothers of all Brownies and Girl Scouts were invited to the event and refreshments were served. Mrs. Walter Simons, Mrs. Elsie Higgins, and Mrs. Sylvia Simons assisted.

Several of the boys in the fifth and sixth grade room have been trying out for the Little League baseball team. Those selected for the various teams to date are John Archer, pitcher; Hank Bartholomew, center field; Pete Jackson, pitcher; Dick Taylor, left field; Al Carlson, right field; Richard Ward, third base; and Bill Ganter, catcher. The boys are enthusiastically looking forward to the first game, scheduled June 18, at St. James field.

MARY SLATER, Carol Green, Nancy McGonney, Linda Rakas, Anne Wilson, Barbara Simons, Bonnie Brand, Enaly Haugen and Isabel Macdonald were among those who took part in the Barbara McCall Seaver dance recital June 2.

Jeff Crawford is recovering from a tonsillectomy. Elizabeth and Mary Gillen spent the holidays at their family cottage on Lake Michigan. Nancy McGonney has become an aunt. Her new little niece was born May 21 at Henry Ford Hospital and is named Margaret Ruth Morris.

Local Man Honored By Wayne U Society

MacKeezie Union, campus-wide organization at Wayne university, honored several members at the annual recognition banquet last week in the student center.

Among the members of the board of governors who received recognition keys was Howard Johnson, 728 Emmons.
