CHANGES HIS MIND-Thirteen-year-old George Raymond, shown at left as he recently received a physical checkup prior to discharge from the Army, was asked if he would enlist when he reaches the proper age. "They gotta draft me" was the reply of the Brooklyn youth. Raymond, who was examined at the Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., was in the service three weeks.

'Y Married Men Cop Championship With Easy Win

The 'Y Married Men of the Birmingham YMCA intramural basketball league captured the regulation season championship when it downed 'Y Phalanx 48 to 38 Monday.

North Chevrolet All-Stars champions in 1949-50, tied with 'Y Phalanx for second place by rolling up a 62 to 40 score over T. B. Ray's. C. F. Mulholland led into the fourth play-off slot with a rousing 51 to 21 win over Birmingham Merchants.

The three games closed the regulation season's play in the league. Play-offs get underway March 5 at the Baldwin gym with St. James Episcopal Church opposing Cranbrook Christ Church for the representative berth in the metropolitan Detroit Church League playoffs.

THIS GAME AT 7 P.M. will be followed by the 'Y Married Men opposing North Chevrolet at 8 p.m. and 'Y Phalanx taking on C. F. Mulholland at 9 p.m. Winners of the two later games will play March 12 and the losers will meet to determine third team in the standings.

'Y Married Men trailed 'Y Phalanx for the first two quarters and were behind 17 to 15 at half-time. In the third quarter, the winners scored on set shots and moved into a commanding lead as Dick Blauman and Bud Olmstead scored repeatedly on rebound shots.

Dick Blauman's 16 points were high for 'Y Married Men. Paul Phillips had 13 points in 'Y Phalanx' losing effort. The game marked the last for Dick Blauman, who is leaving for military service.

C. F. MULHOLLAND playing for a final berth in the playoffs toyed with Birmingham Merchants as it swept to an early lead and maintained a commanding margin throughout. Paul Schilling was 18 points lead the department store boys in scoring while Geisler and Baker with 20 markers and a good showing on defense stood out for Mulholland's.

North Chevrolet All-Stars rebounded from its previous week's defeat with a 62 to 40 win over T. B. Ray's. Bob Folin's 27 points were high for the night. Jack Ben-
