DON'T WAIT FOR SPARE SECONDS TO DO BEAUTY FIRSTS: UTILIZE WORKING HOURS

BY EDNA MILES

Women who insist they have no spare moments for beauty routines often discover they can find the necessary time by combining activities.

If, at the end of a long working day, you would prefer relaxing with a book to prepping up your hands, you may discover it isn't really necessary to make a choice. Do both.

There's no need to sit idle, pouting with boredom, while you give your cuticles your weekly treatment. Do one hand at a time, soaking your fingertips in a bowl of oil, leaving the other free to turn the pages of your currently favorite novel.

This is a good trick to remember when giving yourself a facial or applying cream treatments. Instead of sitting around and counting minutes until the procedure is finished, you might try taking a nap or even—if you're really upset upon getting full value from your time—washing the soother dishes.

Discolored elbows, too, can be whitened while you knit or read. Slice a lemon in two and place each half in a bowl small enough to hold it in firm position. A custard dish is excellent for this. Place your elbows upon the lemons and let them bleach while you finish your argyle or an exciting chapter.

Nan Gilbreath Announces Plans For April Rites

Miss Nan Gilbreath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gilbreath, Jr., has set April 14 as the date for her marriage to James M. Chandler of New Britain, Conn. The ceremony will be at 4:30 o'clock in Christ Church, Cranbrook, with a reception following at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Mrs. Robert Skinner will come from Sacramento, Calif., to be her sister's matron of honor and Jane Dodds of New York, will be maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. William Rowland of New Britain, Conn., Patricia Daly of Birmingham, Mrs. Frank Sinks, the former Sally Cook, of Detroit, and Mrs. Charles Bilby, the former Janet Gasser of Saginaw. Robert Lee of New Britain will be best man.

The ushers will include Robert Skinner of Sacramento, Calif., William Gilbreath, brother of the bride, William Rowland and Ralph S. Howe, Jr., both of New Britain, Charles Travis of Tenet, N. J., and Robert Timmons of Terrytown, N. J.

Child Study Club To Discuss Youth Problems

Miss Muriel Brusie and Mr. Malcolm Tindall will be the speakers at the March 6 meeting of the Birmingham Child Study Club. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph C. Cook Jr., 1737 West Lincoln at 8:00 p.m. Mrs. Ellsworth Kramer and Mrs. James Hills will assist the hostesses.

Miss Brusie and Mr. Tindall are counselors of girls and boys at Barnum Junior High School. The discussion of the evening will center around the junior high school child.

Mr. Tindall will speak on "Adolescence" and Miss Brusie will have as her subject, "How teenagers grow up." Both speakers have done advanced work in education and are well known in the community.

Photos must be submitted by noon each Friday to insure publication the following Thursday. If you don't want it, someone else does—sell it thru an Eccentric Classified Ad!

News About GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 33
Troop 33 at Barnum is nearing the completion of its Home Nursing Course. Mrs. John St. Clair, who has been instructing the girls in her home, reports that they have become adept at bathing and dressing patients. The Scouts are making bed jackets for themselves as another step towards their badge.

Troop 32
Troop 32 at Barnum enjoyed a snow hike a few weeks ago. During the hike they searched for animal tracks and later warned themselves at the home of Mrs. J. H. Fortune who served hot cocoa.

Troop 30
This troop has had a course in child care in preparation for the time when they may become babysitters. They have worked with baby equipment and have learned to bathe and feed children. Beatrice Snyder's mother, Mrs. Thornton Snyder, will be at the next two meetings to give special ceramic instructions. Joy Fortune and Judy Buchanan will represent Troop 32 at the Juliette Low Birthday Party.

Troop 36
Troop 36 at Quanton has appointed Sharon Bredlove and Ann Reinhardt as delegates to the Juliette Low Birthday Party on March 12 at the Community House. This troop sold 276 boxes of cookies in a recent sale.

Troop 26
Troop 26, Pierce, Scribe Susan Brundage reports that the Scouts have been working steadily on their main project of the year which is making quilts to be presented to the Junior Needlework Guild. As their share of the Scout Participation Program for the March Meeting of the Pierce PTA, this troop decided to dramatize in

Ruth Shain Class Hears Mr. Crouse

Due to illness, Mrs. Pretz was unable to show her colored slides to the Ruth Shain International Relations Class on Tuesday. Mrs. Lawton Tubor introduced Mrs. F. Chalmers Smith who was Birmingham's representative from pantomime the first three Girl Scout Laws.

Troop 38
Troop 38, Adams, The Girl Scouts in this troop had a Washington Day Celebration. The story of the first flag was read, and then the girls made colorful paper replicas of the original flag. Carol Houghton also had a birthday, and her mother served ice cream and cake. Delegates to the Juliette Low Birthday party were chosen by lottery. Jean Simson's name was drawn, but as she had attended last year's party she asked that another girl be given the opportunity. Joanne Brown and Barbara McKee were then chosen.

The League of Women Voters at the conference at Michigan State College, on United Nations. She gave a report on the results and decisions of the League for future action in relation to United Nations.

SHE IN TURN introduced Mr. Paton B. Crouse of American Friends Service Committee. Mr. Crouse has lived many years in China, therefore is well qualified to present views of the Chinese people in regards to our Military action.

He urged that National decisions should not be made solely on a Military expedience basis but on their moral values. He told of the work of the friends in many countries where centers are established for bringing together widely varying interests. Volunteer services have been established in these foreign countries as well as our own.
