WOODWARD AT ADAMS RD.

"There's No Substitute for Quality"

A GEM OF A HOME IN A PERFECT SETTING

This is one of the most notable offerings of fine homes this year. Located on the high, wooded north shore of Gilbert Lake, this lovely, modern ranch-type home is in one of the most scenic spots in this part of Michigan, yet it is only 1 1/2 miles from the doors of Cranbrook School.

Great and loving care has been used in the planning, design and building of this charming home. Only the finest in heating systems and in plumbing equipment has been installed.

All important rooms face the lake, each with a wonderful view. There are three splendid bedrooms, each 14'6" x 15'6" with two beautiful baths. The master bedroom has also a dressing room 9' x 15' with very large closet space.

Included are beautiful Bigelow carpets covering all the floors. The Frigidaire electric stove is also included.

If you are looking for the finest and the newest in a home today you should not fail to let us show you this.

'Spring Spin' Held At Community House

Plans for the next community house dance to be held Saturday evening, April 7, are under way after the meeting of the dance committee held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rosa Kittle. In keeping with the season, the dance will be called "The Spring Spin". Co-chairmen of the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Manley and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Wahl who are in charge of tickets and promotion. Mrs. George Dixon has arranged for Jack Rosewater's orchestra and decorations will be handled by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Diegel and Mr. and Mrs. James McCoy.

Mrs. Carlton Isley, Director of the Birmingham Community House, was present at the meeting together with Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Willett, Jr. As social chairman of the Community House, Mrs. Willett will act as co-ordinator of the affair. Also on hand to participate in the discussion were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Heber Hizer and Mr. and Mrs. W. Arthur Fielden. Mr. Hizer and Mr. Fielden were placed in charge of publicity.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new—call the society editor about them.

Nuptials Solemnized in Double Ring Ceremony

At a candlelight ceremony performed on March 10, Shirley Ruth Rauss exchanged her marriage vows with Jack Wiedemann. Shirley is the daughter of Mrs. Ernest J. Rauss and the late Mr. Rauss of St. Johns Woods, Berkeley, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Welby Wiedemann of Sandusky, Ohio.

Dr. W. Glen Harris officiated in the double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian church of Birmingham.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father Edward Rauss, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin. It was distinguished by a deep square neckline embroidered with pearls, long fitted sleeves and a light bodice. The very full skirt which swept into a cathedral train, fell from a satin band embroidered with seed pearls. Her finger tip veil of ivory silk illusion was held in place by a crown of ivory satin trimmed with iridescent beads and crystals. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert Rauss of Bloomfield Hills attended the bride and groom. Her gown of American Beauty taffeta was designed with portrait neckline, very short sleeves and a full skirt. She

MRS. JACK WIEDEMANN carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

THE BRIDESMAIDS, Mrs. Frank Roller of Pleasant Ridge and Miss Rita Fryer of Detroit wore similar gowns of pink taffeta. They wore tiny hats of matching taffeta with small veils and carried American Beauty carnations.

The bride's mother chose a gown of dusty rose lace and tissue tulle. She wore lavender orchids. Mrs. Wiedemann's gown was twilight grey faille crepe. Her flowers were purple orchids. Robert Rauss was best man and the ushers were Donald Rauss of Detroit and William Hanna of Chardon, Ohio.

Foreign Students Entertained by AAUW March 14

The local branch of the American Association of University Women entertained 30 foreign students from the University of Michigan, Wednesday, March 14. Mrs. Lawton C. Tabor, president of the local branch, said that the students were guests at a noon luncheon at the Community House. Mrs. Charles Boyd of Pleasant Ridge, spoke on her experiences at the convention of the International Federation of University Women at Zurich, Switzerland last summer.

FOLLOWING THAT meeting, members took the students to their various homes during the afternoon. The guests were shown how the members go about their daily tasks. They stayed for dinner with the families, and spent part of the evening with them, before being returned to Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Tabor said that the project grew out of the international relations policy of the AAUW. She pointed out that most of the foreign students are lonely and desire contact with Americans in their homes. "Since the AAUW has as one of its many interests, the strengthening of international relations, we believe personal contact with other nationalities is particularly valuable."

Deadline for society club news is noon each Monday.

Mrs. Fred W. Sanders of Epping Lane Bloomfield Hills will be chairman of the annual Spring Rummage sale to be held April 26 by the Women's Auxiliary of Christ church Cranbrook. In anticipation of this exciting event Mrs. Sanders entertained her committee chairman at luncheon in her home last Friday. Mrs. C. H. Welch Jr. will be co-chairman and Mrs. Richard Wagner vice-chairman. Proceeds from this project will be contributed to 18 social service agencies in Oakland County and neighboring areas.
