Stewart Peck Named To Johns Hopkins Glee Club Group

Stewart Peck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peck, 1235 Maryland, was selected member of the traveling unit of the Johns Hopkins University Men's glee club. The group is limited to 100 men and then through further testing is then to 75. The traveling unit is composed of 25 men selected from this group and it is an honor to be chosen for this organization. While in high school, he was member of Baldwin choir under the direction of Victor Ulrich. He participated in operettas and mixed ensembles in junior high school. The glee club will feature in its tour season the Yale glee club series including "Shenandoah" and "High Barbary", as well as several by Fred Waring's arrangements for men's voices.

BARNUM JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

The Barnum PTA and the Student Council have recently completed furnishing the teacher's lounge. The committee appointed by Mrs. Marian Ketchum consisted of Mrs. Paul McDonald, Mrs. S. P. Jesson and Mrs. Charles Shaw. The committee consisted of Principal Samuel Bennett consisted of Monzelle Clark, Nan Halslock, Doris Lange, Marion McFarlane and Gladys Rogers. The lounge was also redecorated and is now ready for use.

THE PHOTOGRAPHY CLUBS are making fine progress. The girls meet each Thursday with Mrs. Hammond, and the boys meet each Wednesday with Mr. Buell. The small initial groups are gradually enlarging as facilities permit. The program thus far has been the developing of films and printing of pictures. Later, ferrotyping, projection printing and mounting of prints will be taken up. Part of the time is spent in class room for instruction and discussion. The remaining time is spent in the dark room for demonstration and actual participation. Students will be allowed to use the dark room in groups of two or three just as soon as they have enough proficiency in the use of the materials to carry on by themselves.

THEY WILL ASSIST Malcolm Findall in taking group pictures of athletic teams and club groups during the rest of the year. The persons who belong to the girls' group under the leadership of Mrs. Hammond are Barbara
