

Comedy Presented By Senior Class of Troy High School

A three-act comedy, "Sound Your Horn," was presented by the senior class of Troy high school Friday evening, March 26 in the Big Beaver Methodist church. The cast included Audrey Dittmer, Delores Klusendorf, Evelyn Collins, Leonard Gardner, Eric Budd, Lily Mae Clippert, Loren Epler and Craig Nelson. Others were prompters, Sally Dale and Vivian Stuckie; stage manager, Norman McComb; make-up, Johanna Woolsey, Irene Cook and Annette Rothwell; and director, Bernard Smink.

BETTY DAVIS PALMER, fashion commentator for a Detroit shopping center, will give an informal discussion of fabric, color and detail at the "Portrait of Spring Fashions," April 5. The program will be a part of the fashion show and tea sponsored by the Friendly and Evening circles of the Franklin Community church. It will be given in the church beginning at 2 p.m.

Charles Murray Receives F. H. Yost Honor Award Key

Charles Murray, 388 Tilbury was one of 16 University of Michigan athletes who received the Fielding H. Yost honor award keys last week. This is the second straight year he has received this honor.

The award is presented for scholastic ability, leadership and physical vigor. Murray was captain of this season's basketball team.

News About GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 38, Adams
Mrs. Andrew Watson prepared strawberry baskets for the Brownies in this troop, and the girls painted them in purple and yellow. After they were filled with straw, colored eggs and candy, the baskets were delivered to children at the Maybury Sanitarium in Northville.

Troop 40, Holy Name
The Scouts in this troop recently earned their pottery badge. Miss Borst, a teacher at Holy Name, gave the scouts special ceramic instruction.

Troop 54, Pierce
Scribe Nancy Cummings reports that the Scouts in Troop 54 made Easter favors for the Slater Kenny Hospital. At their next meeting, they plan to begin working on their Mother's Day surprises.

Troop 56, Pierce
On April 2, the Brownies in this troop will have a field trip to the Polo Center in Pontiac. They will take to the hospital, books which they have made from Christmas cards.

Troop 46, Quanton
Some of the Brownies from this troop and other troops at Quanton have formed a Folk Dance group. They hope to dance at the Girl Scout Fair in April. Their instructor is Miss Jeanette Klinge of Detroit. The girls are also assisting their mothers with their costumes. Joly Frederickson, Troop 30 at Quanton, has earned her dance badge. She formed a dance class of four children and taught them some ballet. The dancers met at the home of Mrs. L. Falvey. Mrs. Falvey's tiny daughter, Amy, is the mascot of Troop 46. Amy wears the Brownie uniform and has been in regular attendance for almost two years.

Troop 13, Quanton
Money received through the recent cookie sale, was used last Saturday by Troop 13 for a pleasant afternoon outing. The girls were taken to Detroit by their leader, Mrs. William Bond, and Mrs. Arthur Hudson and by Mrs. H. C. Robeson to see Peter Paul. At present the girls are working with leather making wallets and belts. They are planning a tea for their mothers, to be given at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hudson in April.

Reveal Engagement

NANCY ADELE DALTON

Mr. and Mrs. Carson Elwood Dalton of Verona, N. J., formerly of Birmingham, have announced the engagement of their daughter Nancy Adele, to Gerald Earle Youngman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vreeland Youngman of Montclair, N. J.

The prospective bride attended Monticello Junior College in Alton, Ill., and Michigan State College at Lansing.

Mr. Youngman is a graduate of Williams College, where he was affiliated with Chi Psi Fraternity. During World War II Mr. Youngman served two years in the Naval Air Corps.

The couple plan an early fall wedding.

Troy Dad's Club Names Ray Murphy as New President

Ray Murphy was chosen president of the Troy Dad's Club at the group's annual election of officers last week.

Other new officers are Ellisworth Ogg, vice-president; Walter Taylor, treasurer; and Paul Gregory, secretary. Serving on the executive committee will be William Astor, O. I. Mullan, Grady Moore, William Becker and James Gamble.

THE MAIN PROJECT of the club is to secure money to finance a lighted football field for the new Troy township high school.

The group is sponsoring a dance Friday evening, March 30 at 9 p.m. at May's Barn, Rochester road near 16 Mile. There will be variety dancing with the Melody Masters orchestra. Proceeds will go toward the field, and the dance is open to the public.

Barnum Scouts Honor Scoutmaster Leaving For Air Corps Duty

A Boy Scout Court of Awards April 2 will pay special tribute to Scoutmaster Robert Doyle who is returning to active duty with the Army Air Corps.

The court will be for the members of Troop B-1 and Explorer Post B-1, both of Barnum junior high school and will be at the First Presbyterian church at 7:30 p.m.

Awards to be presented are new registration, James Taup, first class; Tenderfoot, George Bouse, William Coons, Edward Dingler, Tom Hewitt, Robert Smith, Jr., Mark Reid, Robert Smith and Harvey Swift.

Second class, Richard Loeding, Robert Mang and Don Miller; merit badges, Ronnie Bown, four; William Davies, three; Richard Aggie, four; Robert Libby, four; Robert Perkins, two; Luis Vela, five; and Richard Loeding, one.

Star rank, Ronnie Bown, William Davies, Richard Goggin and Robert Libby.

News copy submitted early necessarily is given preference over late items. So the "Early Bird" usually gets the space.

Report to Come

Committee members in charge of the Community House Roll Call said this week no further report would be made until the complete totals have been compiled, probably in about three weeks. The last reported figure was $31,000 which topped the 1951 quota by $1,000.
