

Puppeteers to Give Second Show in Series

Chi Omega Alumnae Will Give Luncheon

Paul Wagner of Birmingham will assist the chairman, Mrs. William Rooster of Grosse Pointe. The financial vice-president, Mrs. Loal Jefferson Hanavan will be the speaker.

The North Suburban Alumnae Group of Chi Omega will meet for luncheon and bridge on Saturday, April 7, in Grosse Pointe War Memorial, with the surrounding territory groups to celebrate their 56th Founders Day.

Since social and civic service activities are important in the organization, the North Suburban Alumnae group has established a loan fund, for the use of foreign women students at Wayne University.

"THE COWBOY AND HIS HORSE"

"Hoss" Cicero and Beebe Brain pause during rehearsal.

"Beebe Brain Goes West" is the title of a brand new marionette show being presented by the Birmingham Puppeteers of the AAUW Saturday, April 7, at the First Presbyterian Church. In order to accommodate all who wish to see it, two performances will be given, one at 10:00 a.m. and one at 11:00 a.m.

The play is sponsored by the Sarah Hunter guild of the First Presbyterian Church with Mrs. Robert Graham, Mrs. Earl Anderson, and Mrs. Robert Ellertby in charge of arrangements. They will be assisted by Mrs. Fred Sage, Mrs. Franklin Zercher, Mrs. Ralph Moxley, Mrs. James Jones, and Mrs. John VanderRoest. Tickets may be obtained from members or at the door.

"Beebe Brain Goes West" is an original marionette play written and created by the Birmingham Puppeteers and has not been previously presented in Birmingham.

The seven marionettes, which include a horse, bad man, sheriff and mountain lion have been designed and created by the Puppeteers especially for this performance. Detective Beebe Brain, hero of the puppeteers' last show, travels west in this his latest exciting adventure.
