Area Women Fete Governor's Wife At Progressive Tea

FRANKLIN—Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, wife of Michigan's governor, was the honored guest at a progressive tea in the Franklin-Southfield area Tuesday.

Starting at 10 a.m., the group gathered at the home of Mrs. Harold Murphy until noon. The next two hours were spent at the home of Mrs. Raymond Hae, going to the Thomas Waldron home for the final period.

Mrs. Murphy said this was a part of Mrs. Williams' plan to visit every section of the state to meet and become acquainted with the women of Michigan.

Donald Lewellen Claims Bride in Jackson Ceremony

MRS. DONALD LEWELLEN

At 3:30 o'clock the afternoon of March 24 in the First Methodist Church, Jackson, Mich., Carol Marie Brown of Jackson spoke her marriage vows to Donald R. Lewellen of Birmingham.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hoover Rupert, before an altar banked with palms and Easter lilies. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of candlelight satin, with a deep yoke and sleeves of Chantilly lace. Snug-fitting bodice featured a short V neckline with stand up collar. Intricate folds of satin formed a bustle effect in the skirt and extended into a modified train.

HER MANTILLA of silk illusion was edged in Belgian lace and held in place by a crown of seed pearls from which fell the double finger-tip veil. She carried white orchids and gardenias surrounded by lilies of the valley.

Marilyn Brown was her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mary Jane Hancock, Shirley Lyons of Jackson, Elaine Traut of Battle Creek and Ruth Kuehn of Toledo. The maid of honor was dressed in a gown of jagout yellow with matching halo of beaded satin. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of willow green net, over satin and matching braided satin halos. They carried arm arrangements of daffodils.

Wendell G. Lewellen, Jr., served as best man. William R. Lewellen another brother of the groom, John Cook, Don R. Rickabour, and Webb Wilson seated the guests.

MRS. BROWN chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of coffee colored chiffon with inserts of lace. She wore a beige, flower-ribbon hat and a corsage of Johanna Hill roses.

Mrs. Lewellen selected a frock of royal blue surah silk, a matching flowered hat and yellow spray orchids.

A reception at the Jackson Country Club, followed the ceremony.

For traveling the bride changed to a grey wool suit, a navy straw hat and navy accessories.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Glen M. Brown of Jackson and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wendell G. Lewellen of Pilgrim road.

LWV to Schedule Informal Evening Meetings Next Week

How much do you know about recreation facilities for children in Birmingham? Is an improved recreational program for the family needed and why? How is the recreational program supported financially? Do you know what recommendations have been made by the Recreation Board to the City Commission? Do you approve of them? These are some of the questions on the Birmingham Recreation Program which the League of Women Voters will discuss next week at informal evening meetings. All interested citizens whether League members or not are invited to attend.

On Monday, April 2, the meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Joseph Wright, 215 Pilgrim at 8 p.m., and the discussion leader will be Mrs. Donald McGuire. Tuesday evening, April 3, the group will meet at the home of
