Teen Age Bowling Event Slated in Hills This Week

Approximately 300 bowlers are expected to compete in the annual Hillcrest Doubles Handicap bowling tournament at Hillwood Recreation, Bloomfield Hills, March 28-30, according to tournament manager John Dhan of Bloomfield Hills high school.

The tourney will be divided into both boys and girls junior and senior divisions. The junior division is for bowlers from grades from the tenth and senior for those in the tenth and above.

Officials claim the tournament will be a low bowler's dream. For persons with an average of 60, the handicap is 90; for a 100 average, it is 50; and the hand cap is 15 for a 150 average.

Business firms of Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Detroit are sponsoring this tournament, which is said to be the largest teen age doubles event in Michigan.

VAUGHAN SCHOOL NEWS

By Charles Koella

Last Thursday morning the newly formed Bloomfield Hills A cappella choir, under the direction of Miss Ruth Ziegler, presented School Auditions.

The students heard the following selections: "Navy Hymn", "Adorems Te", "From Ill Do Thou", "Baird Lord Jesus", "Hark the Vesper Hymn", "When Jesus Wept" and "All In the April Evening".

Mary Roberts of the fifth grade won the school Spell-down at an assembly last week. Sally Hanson of the sixth grade was runner-up. The kindergarten children are making Pussy Willows for decoration in their room and to take home. Nan Jones, Larry Emright and Susan Robinson brought some real ones for the room.

THE SENIOR CLASS sponsored the "Bunny Hop" Thursday evening, March 22. It was a great success under the chairmanship of Marjorie Shirey.

The student council plans to buy a juke box for all the classes and organizations to use for their dances. School will be closed until April 2 for Easter vacation.

Baldwin Speech Students Entered In District Meet

By Susanne Jones

Speech students of Birmingham, Auburn Heights and Utica will vie for top honors in the district speech contest at Utica high school April 5.

Speakers representing Birmingham in declamation will be Peter Cook and Rita Skarow; extemporaneous speaking, Donald Adam and Jack Goodman; oratory, Dudley Chapman and Sandra Puls; dramatic reading, Jane Seymour and Marilyn Hart.

Directed by Charles F. Thumser, debate coach, Birmingham entries won two district and two regional titles last year.

THE THIRD GRADE pupils are making a study of Dentist. Jimmy Alah, Phillip Emrich and Billy Noch have started to do research of their own on the subject. The class painted flower boxes for their Liberty garden in their room.

No school will be held until April 2 because of spring vacation. The paper drive will be held soon.

Peter Whims, new president of the Student Council, presided at the Assembly, Thursday morning, Nov. 22.

Famela Parkins announced the results of the seed sale. A total of 882 packages of flower and vegetable seeds were sold. Elaine Palmer of the sixth grade was the all-school winner. She received a long-handled weed digger.

Dawne Karnes sold the most seeds in the fifth grade; Paul Hill, fourth grade; Carol LaMotte, second; Raymond Grainger, first and Judy Ollar, kindergarten.

The PTA award for this month went to the fifth grade and was received by Judy Sundstrom, treasurer. Movies of spring and Easter subjects were shown.
