We Heard It Said By:
 Charles Mortensen, manager of the Bham Chamber of Commerce: "On the final day for obtaining new 1951 auto plates, our office was packed, of course. One man mentioned to us that he had been waiting 20 minutes for service. We couldn't help ourselves—in the press of all this 11th hour business—from explaining to him, 'Well, we've been waiting three months for you to get here.'"

City Library Board Requests Full Mill Appropriation

In a letter read at the city commission meeting Monday evening, Jeanne Lloyd, librarian of Baldwin public library asked that the city levy for library purpose the maximum of one mill on each dollar of the total assessed value of property in the city.
 The library board has been getting this amount in past years and is the limit of its appropriation. This amount is in City Manager Donald C. Egbert's proposed budget.

Lathrup Colonel Now Attending Air War College

MAXWELL AIR FORCE BASE, Ala., March 2.—Lt. Col. Oliver D. Loomis, 27441 Lathrup, Southfield township, is presently attending the Air War College here.
 Prior to reporting to Maxwell, Colonel Loomis was personnel officer, Headquarters U. S. Air Force.
 He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Loomis.
 As the senior school of the Air University educational system, the Air War College operates as the Air Force doctrinal center in the field of strategy and employment of air power.
 Mission of the College is two-fold: education of selected officers for high command and staff duties, and the conduct of special studies and evaluations which provide sound air power concepts and appraisals of critical Air Force problems.

Bride-Elect Names Date

Miss Phyllis Morse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jennings Morse, has chosen her attendants for her April 7 wedding when she will become the bride of Mr. John R. Milligan, Jr., of Lakewood, Ohio. The ceremony will take place at 4:30 p.m. in the Franklin Village Church with the reception following at the Sheraton.
 Her sister Nancy will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Barbara Wolf, Miss Marilyn Blauman of Franklin, and Miss Marguerite Anderson of Rockville Center, N. Y.
 Mr. Milligan has asked his brother, Richard to be his best man. The ushers include David Schultz of Lakewood, Val Frederick of New York City, and James Morse, brother of the bride.
 Mrs. Gerald Wright honored Miss Morse at a shower in her Franklin home last Tuesday evening.

Newspaper copy submitted early necessarily is given preference over late items. So the "Early Bird" usually gets the space.
