A prominent Detroit lawyer for 40 years, Mr. Moore was born in Washtenaw county on May 28, 1879. He was graduated from the Detroit College of Law in 1907 and was a member of the Michigan Bar association. His son, Ralph S., Jr., joined his father's law firm a short time ago.

Mr. Moore had been on the board of trustees for the Arnold home for 34 years and had served as secretary of the home for many years. He was also a 32nd degree Mason.

Survivors are his widow, Marie and these children, Mrs. William Keefe, Mrs. John J. Osmer, Mrs. Robert F. Decker of Kirkwood, Mo., Mrs. John P. Debo, Barbara, Robert M., of Grand Rapids and Ralph S. Moore, Jr., a brother, Bert Moore also survives.

Services will be at the William R. Hamilton chapel in Detroit at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

JOHN J. KEAN, SR., 80, died May 2 at the home of his son in Fenton. A tire manufacturer and wholesale coal dealer, he had lived in Detroit and Fenton for 47 years.

Mr. Kean was born in Saginaw on Aug. 14, 1870 and married Rose Leach on July 1, 1891. He was a member of St. Johns church in Fenton.

Survivors are his widow; four daughters, Mrs. Richard Dewey, Mrs. Bernard Fowler and Mrs. Margaret E. Buehler, all of Birmingham and Mrs. Arthur C. Mason of Fenton; four sons, John J., Jr., of Fenton, Harold V. of Detroit, Robert E. of Victoria, Tex. and Bernard A. of Houston, Tex.; 10 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Rosary services were held from the Manly Bell funeral home on Friday evening with the Mass service at Holy Name church Saturday morning. Burial was in St. John's cemetery, Fenton.

MRS. WILLIAM E. HETCHEL, 71, 4615 Liverton, Troy township, died at her home Monday morning after a long illness. Edith Sargeant was born in Duxseth, Eng., on June 7, 1879 and came to this vicinity when seven years old. She was married to William Hetchel on Oct. 17, 1900.

Mrs. Hetchel was a member of the Royal Neighbors, Big Beaver Blue Star Mothers, WCTU and Troy Methodist church.

Besides her husband she is survived by four children, Clifford of Royal Oak, Flossie Henderson, Auburn Heights; Clarence and George of Saskatchewan; 21 grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Brother, Clyde Sargeant of Pontiac and sister Mrs. Daisy Ferguson of Port Huron also survive.

Services are from the Troy Methodist church at 2 p.m., May 10 with burial in Crooks cemetery.

Adams PTA to See "Dust or Destiny"

"Dust or Destiny," a dramatic presentation of inexplicable miracles of nature, is a new color film to be presented May 14 at 8:00 p.m. at the final Adams PTA meeting.

It explains the wonders of nature, mechanism of the human heart, homing instinct of the bee and flight of a bat guided by its own radar.

This is the last of the combined Adams and Torry PTA programs, concluding a year's series on "Building for Our Children's Future," with "Building Through Peace of Mind."

Torry school is establishing its own PTA which will begin its program next fall.

Library Friends Elect Officers, Review History

Friends of the Baldwin Public Library held their first annual meeting Tuesday night in the library, and elected Paul Wilson, 962 Puritan, as the new president.

Other officers elected are James Tobin, 1939 Henrietta, 1st vice-president; Graham Shinnick, 945 Poppleton, 2nd vice-president; Graham J. Graham, North Woodward, treasurer; Mrs. Lewis C. Dibble, 1100 W. Lincoln, secretary; Mrs. Thomas P. Sharples, 485 Riveroak, assistant secretary; Mrs. Harry N. Gruber, 884 Knox, and George R. Averill, 659 Riveroak, directors.

During the meeting a four-act pageant, depicting the origin and development of the Baldwin Public Library, was given by an able cast that portrayed, both in colorful costume and factual history, the story of the library's part in Birmingham's life.

The pageant was written by Frances Patton, directed by Ruth Lutz, while properties were handled by Ada Green.

Those taking part in the pageant were Lois Milligan, Elizabeth Sneed, Alice Taber, Ruth Howarth, Phyllis Jackson, Betty Milligan, Roxane Lambie, David Morgan, Ned Sharples, Ted Averill, Elizabeth Linton, Beni Weinhold, Richard Van Dusen, Bob Ketchum, Barbara Van Du-Beth, Dorothy Carlin, Elizabeth Bennett, and Bruce Roth.

Story Of An Idea Is Related by Birmingham Man

Before the sales executive council of Nashville, Tenn., Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night George D. Scott, 284 Hupp Cross road, Bloomfield Village discussed "How We Started from Scratch and Sold An Idea."

General sales manager of Ex-Cell-O corp's Pure-Pak division, Scott told about their paper milk containers now in use throughout the nation, and of installations in South America, Canada, Mexico and certain Pacific areas.

On May 29 he will appear before the annual convention of weights and measures officials at the National Bureau of Standards in Washington, D. C.

Scott is a member of the board of directors of the National Dairy Council (Chicago) and the executive committee of the National Association of Dairy Equipment Manufacturers (Washington, D. C.).

Election Violation Brings Fine to Local Woman

Mrs. Ruth B. Graf, 519 Wimbeldon was fined $15 and $10 costs when arraigned before Associate Justice John W. Gaffill Monday on charges of violation of election laws.

County Prosecutor Clyde D. Underwood said that a petition has been turned in by Mrs. Graf that had been circulated. She was listed as a petition circulator for Mrs. Eloise Green for delegate to last year's county Republican convention.

THIS IS Jettie!

THIS is the engine that's blazing a new path for speed—endurance—and fuel efficiency the world over. The engine that—in the past few months—won South America's great 1890-mile Peruvian Road Race... set a new half-mile dirt track sprint record... triumphed over all competition in Grand National Stock Car Race at Charlotte, N. C. ... won the Bell Timing Trophy with 99.4 miles an hour... delivered an amazing 25.92 miles to the gallon in the 1951 Mobilgas Economy Run... and today as the Dual Jettie engine, it is making international racing history in Britain's Nash-Healey sports car.

This is JETTIFIRE... the engine that powers the Nash Ambassador... the engine only Nash can build... the result of years of specialization in high-compression, valve-in-head design.

JETTIFIRE challenges you to take the wheel... to compare it with any other engine in any other car at any price!

Your Nash dealer will be glad to lend you a new Jettie-powered Nash Ambassador for you to make your own comparisons.
