

Nearly all children come into life with the yearning for the best that mankind has created for them, which includes love of the good. As they grow up, if their thoughts are warped, it is only because their elders failed to nurture childhood's ideals.

Vacation Houses To Open, Through Friendly Society

Mrs. William E. Rice of Southfield, chairman of Girls' Friendly Society's Holiday House committee will preside at a special luncheon on Wednesday, May 16, when the committee will welcome three new members.

The party will take place at Rest Cottage, one of the three vacation houses at the Girls' Friendly non-profit camp at Pine Lake.

At a business session preceding the luncheon, detailed plans will be made for the June 30 opening of Holiday House for girls of 12 to 16 years, and Bird's Nest cottage for those of 6 to 11 years. Rest Cottage, for older girls and women is already open for a week-end or longer.

Committee members from Birmingham area are Mrs. Rogers I. Marquis, Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble, Mrs. Joseph Page, Mrs. William J. Graham, Mrs. George Hoke, Mrs. John W. Gillette, Jr., and Mrs. Kenneth McGregor.

Included in the committee members are Mrs. Frederick Weed of Orchard Lake, Mrs. C. Theron Van Dusen of Metamora and Mrs. Frank R. Chapman of Rochester. Miss Frances W. Sibley of Grosse Pointe is honorary chairman.

Chantilly Lace Fashions Gown Of Colleen Ryan

Chantilly lace over ice blue satin with full skirt, long sleeves and off the shoulder neckline with yoke of illusion was the design of the gown worn by Colleen Marie Ryan for her marriage to Paul Robert O'Hara, on Saturday, May 5. Her fingertip veil of net was attached to a modified cloche of chantilly lace. She carried an orchid on a prayer book.

The Solemn High Mass was offered by the bridegroom's uncle Rev. Alexander Zuger of Grand Rapids, in Gesù Church, Detroit.

Mrs. Robert B. Ryan performed the duties as matron of honor for her sister-in-law. She and the bridesmaids Miss Barbara Parsons, Miss Elaine Kiefer and Mrs. Camille Hryzo wore identical halter-length gowns with durbonet nylon tulle skirts and white lace tops. They wore white lace caps like the bride's and carried cascade bouquets of white roses, iris and tulips.

Robert O'Hara served his brother as best man and John O'Hara, Robert Moons and Art Pachan were ushers.

Mrs. Ryan chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of chantilly lace over blue crepe, a pale blue hat and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. O'Hara's gown of seafoam green with beige lace inserts was complemented with a halo of flowers and a brown orchid corsage.

A reception and breakfast was held at Oakland Hills Country Club following the ceremony.

For their motor trip to the Hamptons, Virginia, and through Florida the bride wore a white gabardine suit trimmed in navy and white accessories.

The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Paul Ryan of Briarclife, Franklin Hills and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robert O'Hara of Fairway drive, Detroit.

Church Women Hold Annual Breakfast At Cranbrook, May 4

Miss Doris Reed, protestant advisor for 800 international students at the University of Michigan, with three graduate students, representing Finland, China and Egypt, were special guests at the Birmingham Council of Church Women's annual breakfast Friday morning.

Miss Reed explained the importance of the international student in American universities, saying they will carry Americanism back to their homelands.

"Their understanding of our country, and our knowledge of them, will be influential in the world decisions of tomorrow," she said. "We have, through them, an opportunity to demonstrate real interest and genuine fellowship."

The program is sponsored by the state council of church women. The return of these students to their native countries will, it is felt, aid in re-establishing friendship with nations from which our missionaries have been forced to withdraw.

Mrs. George Meeks, local president, greeted the many guests. Out-of-town guests were introduced by Mrs. George Jackson and the devotional period conducted by Mrs. W. M. Milligan.

Have You Met ...

Mr. and Mrs. Don R. Hammill of 8216 Hills drive. They with their daughters, Donna, age 17 and Marie, age 9 moved here this spring from Bayfield, Ontario. Mr. Hammill is Sales Engineer with Diamond Tool. The Hammills are interested in horses, photography and gardening.
