Patrishia Mary Harding Weds Robert Schaughnessy, May 5

Patrishia Mary Harding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Alfred Harding of Henricetta street, broke her marriage vows to Robert Clarence Schaughnessy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Clarence Schaughnessy of Birmingham boulevard, on Saturday, May 5, at 10 o'clock.

Rev. Joseph J. Kress offered the double ring service in Holy Name Rotunda Inn, following the ceremony. Mrs. Harding was wearing a gown of navy paper taffeta, with couturiers fitted bodice and alouette tucked waistline, accenting the trumpet skirt. The neckline was complemented by a deep red collar. She wore an imported milan straw hat in navy, and carried pink ruffled lilies pinned to her bag.

MRS. R. C. SCHAUGHNESSY Church in a setting of white glads and "tropical ferns."

Also present in the sanctuary were Rev. David J. Duncan, Rev. Thomas M. Kony, Rev. William B. Tarrrier, O. P., and Rev. Edward O'Connor, S.J.

The bride chose for her wedding a gown of luxurious ivory satin, quaintly fashioned after 18th century design. The drop shoulder neckline was studied with pearls and bugle beading. The front of the scalloped skirt opened to reveal many founces of chastity lace.

HER FINGER-TIP hand-rolled veil of English illusion was attached to an open crown cap on mist illusion edged in seed pearls. She carried gardenias with a cascade of ribbons tied in lovers knots with smiles, on an ivory and mother of pearl prayer book which was carried by her maternal grandmother at her wedding.

Miss Agnes Schaughnessy, sister of the bridegroom and maid of honor and Miss Lorraine Richert, bridesmaid, wore fashionable ballerina strapless gowns of delicate blue, silk French lace, over heavy satin. Their portrait bouquets
