Garden Week Proclaimed by Mayor Ritchie

Mayor Chad Ritchie proclaimed May 14 to May 20 inclusive as Garden Week in Birmingham. It is sponsored by the Birmingham Branch of Woman's Farm and Garden Association.

Among the educational and helpful activities planned by the local branch, is the table of literature displayed at the Baldwin Public Library, featuring conservation. Mrs. F. H. McKinney, State Conservation Chairman and Mrs. Douglas Ewan, Conservation Chairman of the local branch, have arranged pamphlets and six books on a table at the library as an aid to the public. The addresses are on the outside of each pamphlet, where copies are obtainable.

On another table at the library a display features conservation as learned by the 6th grade at Walnut Lake school. Miss Marjorie Votey the principal, united citizenship and conservation under one general theme and all grades participated in the activity. The results of which is shown at the library.

Conservation Day, May 18, will be celebrated at Starr Commonwealth, Albion, Mich. Members of the local branch will visit the school and participate in establishing a wild-flower Sanctuary at the new Chapel there. Luncheon will be served to those attending.
