Charles Currie to Head Newly Formed Protective Assoc.

With a purpose to uphold standard of homes in its area in future building, the Highland View Protective association was organized Tuesday, May 8. This association includes homes on Kennesaw, Moberg and Rivenoak between Oxford and Adams. Officers are president, Charles C. Currie, 952 Kennesaw; Vice-president, Robert Bule; Rivenoak; and secretary-treasurer John F. Danese, 683 Moberg. The group met Wednesday evening to develop a definite policing program. Photos must be submitted by noon each Friday to insure publication the following Thursday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 11—Newly-appointed Senator Blair Moody showed 100 of his up-and-coming constituents the U. S. Capitol building today (Friday) when Michigan's delegation of AAA Safety Patrol boys began tours of historic sights here. Automobile Club of Michigan awarded each of the 100 patrol boys a four-day all-expense trip to the 15th Annual National AAA Safety Patrol Rally in the capital as a reward for outstanding school career service. Here Moody gives background in civics to (left to right) William H. Bossenberger, Angell school, Berkley; Donald Robson, Kenwood school, Clawson; Takis Nomides, Coolidge school, Ferndale; and John Thurber, Pierce school, Birmingham.

Southfield PTSA To Install May 22

The recently formed Parent-Teacher-Student association of Southfield high school will hold its second meeting at the school, Laher and 10 Mile roads, May 22 at 8 a.m. Mrs. Mary Lozon, publicity chairman, said an effort would be made to begin all meetings promptly and asked the cooperation of members. The PTSA will include representatives from the student body at all meetings. "We feel that high school students are now 'young adults,'" Mrs. Lozon said, "and should have a voice in school matters. While the idea has been tried out in some sections, we believe we are the only school in this area to adopt the practice." OFFICERS WILL BE installed and tentative plans made for the first fall meeting next September. The program will include a guest from the Detroit symphony, numbers by the high school chorus and the spring concert of the junior high school bands.

Michigan LWV Plans Meeting in Detroit; List Local Delegates

Local representatives are Mrs. Thomas Cautley, Mrs. Charles Guilford, Mrs. Wilbur Johnstone, Mrs. T. Hollister Mahley, Mrs. Brooks Marshall, Mrs. C. Over Robertson, Mrs. John Rumsey, Mrs. Graham Schinnick, Mrs. F. Claimers Smith and Mrs. Cleveland Walcutt. Mrs. Charles Blunt, Mrs. Harvey Forest, Mrs. Harvey Greene, Mrs. Duncan Hauner, Mrs. Henry Jackson, Mrs. William Jackson, Miss Joanne Lloyd, Mrs. Vernon Mickelson, Mrs. Gustavus Pope, Mrs. Phillip Pretz and Mrs. Richard Van Dusen are alternates.

Ex-Resident Rates High in Tennis Play

Jerry Florez, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Florez, formerly of Birmingham and now of Phoenix, Ariz., and Orchard Lake, recently won second place in the Arizona state tennis championships for high school students. He defeated all but one of the No. 1 players in the state. In the singles last fall, Jerry was runner up and with his partner won the boys' doubles in the southwest open. He is currently playing No. 1 for the West Phoenix high school.

Home from Abroad

Mr. and Mrs. James Savage have returned after several weeks in Europe. They stayed a full week on the French Riviera, another in Paris and in England. They spent a few days in Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Holland and Scotland. The trip was planned so that they were in Holland in tulip time and in Paris in April. The James Nunneley's, of Birmingham road, have been vacationing in Cuba, making Havana their holiday headquarters. On their return trip they spent a week with the Roy Carkner's, formerly of Birmingham road and now residents of Hollywood, Fla. They stopped also at Hagerstown, Md., for a visit with Robert Clark, former roommate of Nunneley's at Syracuse university.

Vacationers Return

Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Hershey returned to their Franklin road home last Sunday after a trip to Cincinnati and New York. At Cincinnati they attended the American psychoanalytical and psychiatric meeting, then flew back to New York for a week's vacation. The Wilfred McGuire family, who have been at their winter home at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., for the last three months, are back in their home on Overdale road. Back from Florida, too, are the Alfred Hammer's, Millbrook road. They spent the winter months at their place at Palm Beach.

Houseguests

Here from London, Ont., for a month's visit with the D. C. McKay's, is his mother, Mrs. R. McKay. Mrs. Lee Schindler, East Detroit, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Z. Kowalski on Mountain View lane. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Fricker, Wellington road, have had as recent guests Mrs. Fricker's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Leach of Ashtabula, O. Over the weekend they were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Karma, who are moving from St. Clair Shores to Huntington Woods.

Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tully were hosts to 30 relatives at dinner last Sunday. The occasion was the first communion of daughter DeJores at Holy Name church. Mrs. Arthur Zebede, Hillview lane, was hostess to a group at a luncheon and cards at the annual spring party of the University of Minnesota Women's alumni club. She entertained again at her home last Wednesday, with 12 guests at lunch and cards. Mrs. Walter Kasten was hostess to her bridge club at her home on Mountain View lane last Monday at luncheon and cards.

Recital

Franklin was represented at a recital at the McGregor studio, Highland Park, last Wednesday by Mrs. Clifford Baugh, organist, and William Zebede, son of the Arthur Zebede's, at the piano.
