VAUGHAN SCHOOL NEWS

By BOB LEVIN

Last Saturday the Bloomfield Hills high school team participated in the Southeastern Suburban high schools Conference Track meet at Detroit University school and came in fifth among the seven teams competing.

Ile Royale Laros set a total score of 62. Of the 14 points made by Vaughan, Charles Koella took the only first. This was in shot put where he set a league record with a throw of 38ft., 2 and 3/4 inches, passing the old mark by one-half inch. George Bay took second in the pole vault.

Last Thursday the chemistry classes directed by Stephan Vekic went to the Ethyl Corp. to view the Chemical and Automotive laboratories. The students found the labs very instructive.

Juniors have been making plans this week for the junior-senior banquet which is to be held Tuesday night at the Kingsley Inn. Members of the Math Ziegler's classes have been busy on plans for the comedy program "Ain't Misbehavin'" which they are giving at the school Thursday and Friday nights.

Plans for 1951 Isle Royale Trip Now Underway

By RONNIE PHILLIPS

Plans for the scenic, exciting, and fulfilled Isle Royal trip of 1951, are underway.

The trip is designed for fun for all, with fishing, hiking, and swimming as the main activities. The biggest and probably the most important, of which is eating. Cost of this year's trip is $80, which includes everything except meals to and from Copper Harbor.

The morning of Aug. 23, ten high school boys and three advisors, E. A. Hubbard, Leo Rosahl, and Glen Shaw, a professional cook from Fremont, will leave Birmingham for the 11-day trip.

The group will live on the boat for the duration of the trip and will travel mostly at night, when the water is calmest. The 13 campers will spend six full days on the beautiful island, fishing, hiking and trolling for lake trout.

During a recent assembly Hubbard presented slides and films of the Isle Royal trip which were enjoyed by the entire student body.
