Adams, Torry Plan 1951 Kindergarten Roundup Programs

More than 185 pre-school age children in Birmingham have been invited to attend the kindergarten roundup for the Adams and Torry schools. Mrs. T. Hollister Mabley, PTA health chairman, said separate programs have been planned for each school.

The first will be June 1 at Torry school at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. They will be under the supervision of Mrs. George F. Ward III.

Assisting Mrs. Ward at the morning session will be Mrs. G. Loretta; Mrs. Harold Buerge, Mrs. Y. Stoen and Mrs. J. Zimmerman. The afternoon hostesses are Mrs. Mrs. Edwin Rydell, Mrs. R. Innes, Mrs. Milford Fuller, Mrs. H. Coe and Mrs. Lanny Bellman.

The children will be taken to the kindergarten room where they will have the opportunity to become familiar with their school ready for the fall sessions.

THEY WILL BE entertained at a puppet show by Mrs. James Scribner.

Principal Richard Featherstone will speak briefly to the group of mothers. Health and school information will be presented by Mrs. Hazel Kopp; speech correction, Miss Francis Curtin, school nurse and Mrs. Carolyn Loughran, visiting teacher.

The Adams roundup will be June 7 at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. in room 18.

Mrs. George E. Hoke, PTA president will welcome the mothers who will have the school program explained to them by the teachers. As at Torry, the children will be entertained in the kindergarten department.

Featherstone said an invitation is extended to any families whose children will be entering kindergarten next fall, even though they will have received written notice of the roundup.

Red Cross Graduates Nurses Aides Class At Pontiac Tonight

Mrs. Bradlee Pruden will cap 23 graduate Red Cross nurses' aides with a ceremony this evening in St. Joseph Mercy hospital auditorium.

The group received its training from Mrs. Lewis Daniels of Bloomfield Hills and will be presented by Mrs. Ralph Schwalter of Berkeley and Mrs. Edward Rothman of Birmingham.

Lewis Jarrendt, Oakland county's civilian defense director, will speak of nurses' aide work in the defense program.

A new class will be formed at the hospital at 8 a.m. on June 9, and will continue each Tuesday and Thursday evening for 40 lecture hours. A program of 40 supervised floor hours will follow.

Classes are open to high school graduates between the ages of 18 and 50.
