News About GIRL SCOUTS

More than forty-five troops were represented at the third annual Girl Scout Fair held last Saturday at the Community House. The exhibits of Brownie and Girl Scout troops amounted to a year of hard work and included many articles to be presented to the Needlework Guild—ceramics, knickknacks, metal ornaments, straphooks and many articles of useful clothing and accessories. The Scouts of Troop 21, Bloomfield Village School, displayed a large doll, Judy Selfridge, and she and her children at the Northville Sanitarium. The house was donated by Judy Selfridge, and she and her fellow Scouts completely painted, furnished and decorated it, including attractive landscaping and a play-yard. A large doll, made by Troop 28 of Pierce School, was the center of a First-Aid display and attracted many visitors. The doll was wearing the various bandages and slings which the Scouts had learned in their First-Aid course.

Many out-of-town Scouts and Leaders attended the Fair and the program that followed. After the ceremony by Troop 42, Bar-num, Mrs. James Abbott, President, accepted on behalf of the Birmingham Girl Scout Council, a presentation of International Flags by Barbara Terleck of Troop 45 of Pierce School. American Folk Songs were sung by Troop 45, Quanton; members of several Brownie troops presented folk dances. A ballet duet by Barbara Oakley of Troop 2, Eton road, and Stephanie Smith of Troop 53, Pierce, followed. Troops 9 and 58 of Walnut Lake danced Swedish dances, a German polka and Hungarian and Lithuanian dances. Brownie Troop 48 of Quanton gave a First-Aid demonstration. The program closed with a fashion show by Troop 2, sponsored by Jackson. Nancy Gilliam acted as Scout mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. George Hoke was general chairman; she was assisted by Mrs. John St. Clair and Mrs. Robert Reinhardt.

Scribe Marilyn Cook reports that the Scouts of Troop 33 finished their Auburn home and displayed them at the Girl Scout Fair. After the last meeting, Troop 33 had a ball game and also enjoyed nibbles brought by Sue Pen-scober.

Troop 16, Adams Last week, the Scouts of Troop 16 had a field trip to Long Lake and gathered plants for their herbariums which they displayed at the Fair. Also included in their exhibit were scrapbooks, spice balls, and hostess made for the Needlework Guild.

Troop 38, Adams The Brownies in this troop attended the Fair with their leader, Mrs. P. F. Warrick. They have been taking their First-Aid instruction from Mrs. Russell B. Stephens, and plan to make compact and efficient first-aid kits for their homes.

Troop 26, Pierce Troop 26 has almost completed the work in the eleven fields necessary for their first-year of scouting. In their Fair exhibit were floral centerpieces, pottery and quilts made for the Needlework Guild. Susan Brundage is scribe for this troop.

Troop 8, Torry Flats of petunia seedlings were displayed at the Fair by the Brownies in this troop. They are to be transplanted on the grounds of Torry School. Yarn belts and decorated cookies were also exhibited.

Monday, May 14, Starts Programs for Garden Week

Garden Club Week will furnish inspiration and ideas to all the merchants who have window displays depicting some phase of gardening, and posters made by elementary school children will also be placed in the store windows. Each year the Garden Club sponsors a poster contest depicting the Garden Week and the two best posters from each school are awarded crabs and prizes to be planted at their school.

The trees were awarded on Arbor Day, April 27. The winners for 1951 were, Adams school—Arthur Chandler, 6th grade and Linda Janke, 4th grade. Bloomfield Village school—Anne Wilson, and Linda Kakes, 6th grade. Franklin school—Steve White, 6th grade. June Dremann, 3rd grade. Holy Name school—Sally Garvey, 8th grade and Suzanne Brennan, 5th grade. Pierce school—Judith Van Horn, 6th grade. Quanton school—David Thalerker, 6th grade and Carol Bain, 5th grade. Walnut Lake school—Sally Palmer, 8th grade and Jack Palmer, 6th grade.

MRS. CHARLES C. HOOD, is chairman of the committee in charge of Garden Week. Other members of the committee are: Mrs. George Cutter, Mrs. A. J. Hoim, Mrs. Seth B. Slawson, Mrs. Harold Chapel, Mrs. Frank Webb, and Mrs. Lewis Dibble. First of the planned events will be the luncheon and annual meeting of the Garden Club, at the Community House on May 14, at 12:30. Mrs. Seth Slawson, the club's social chairman, announces Mrs. George Heidem, as chairman of the day, and her assistants are: Mrs. O. B. Elm, Mrs. R. H. Flues, Mrs. Kenneth Duff, and Mrs. Clarence Gardner. Mrs. A. B. Forster and Mrs. Fred Harley will direct the luncheon table. Tickets for the luncheon will follow the election of officers will follow the luncheon, with Mrs. Derwood Gambel, presiding.

Club members will then go to the Baldwin Library where they will view the flower show, containing exhibits placed by all who are interested. The public is urged to enter arrangements in this show, children as well as adults. There will be no judging, so anyone can feel free to share their flowers as an arrangement, or a specimen, bloom or branch. Mrs. Cutter has charge of this show and requests that the exhibits be in place by 12 o'clock noon, on Monday May 14. Please mark materials in one or more of these five classes.

Arrangement of flowering branches with accent of spring flowers, "Something for nothing" as weeds, skunk cabbage, etc., spring flowers, children's arrangements of leaves or branches and specimen blooms.

As a grand climax to Garden Week, a tour of gardens is planned for members and friends. Those who will open their gardens for the tour are Mrs. J. A. Hyland of 316 S. Glenhurst drive, Mrs. Robert Grindley of 852 Pustan, Mrs. William S. Howell of 551 Twin Oaks Lane, corner of East Long road, and Mrs. K. Evans, Evergreen road, opposite 13 Mile.
