

Ringer-McKibbin Nuptials Solemnized At Four O'clock

White flowers, before a background of tropical ferns and palms was the setting of the four o'clock ceremony that united Diana McKibbin to Earl Ringer. Rev. Woodrow Clark read the double ring rites on Saturday in the First Baptist Church of Royal Oak.

The bride, daughter of Mrs.

Kenneth McNaughton of Royal Oak and William McKibbin of Old Hickory, Tenn., selected a suit of delicate pink silk shantung. She wore a matching feather trimmed hat and powder blue slippers. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls which the bridegroom presented to her on his return from China. She carried white orchids surrounded by lilies of the valley and white rose buds.

Soc. Women Painters Hold June Meeting In Farmington

The Birmingham Society of Women Painters will hold a luncheon meeting on Tuesday, June 5, in the home of Mrs. Lloyd Gullen of Farmington.

Plans will be discussed at this meeting for the annual exhibit in the school house studio on June 19. General chairman of the exhibit is Mrs. Ralph D. Williams assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Gullen, Mrs. Ann Stanton, and Mrs. R. J. Bartholomew.

Tea chairman of the exhibit will be Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr. The tables will be decorated by Mrs. Joseph Hinshaw assisted by Mrs. L. H. Thomas.

The exhibit will also be open in the evening. The hostesses at this time will be Mrs. Harry Denyes, Jr., Mrs. Donald Chaffee, Mrs. W. B. Conrad and Mrs. H. H. Gardner, Jr.

AGNES DUNN of Royal Oak served the bride as maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a two piece suit of eggshell linen and accessories of a slightly deeper shade. Her flowers were purple orchids.

Robert Shannon of Detroit performed the duties as best man and Curtis McNaughton and Winston Miller, both of Detroit seated the guests.

A reception for 150 guests followed the ceremony and was held in the church parlors. A buffet dinner was served to the families and close friends in the bride's home after the reception.

Mrs. McNaughton received her guests in a dress of pale grey, sheer crepe, to which she pinned a corsage of lily-of-the-valley roses. Her accessories were navy blue.

Mrs. Ringer wore a dress of navy and white sheer crepe. With this she wore deep orchid accessories and a corsage of lily-of-the-valley roses.

The young couple departed on a honeymoon trip to Florida with the bride wearing a two piece suit of navy and navy accessories. She wore the orchids from her wedding bouquet.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Frank Ringer and the late Mr. Ringer.

Guild To Present Wilder's Comedy In Greek Theater

As its annual outdoor production St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook has selected Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer Prize winning comedy, "The Skin of Our Teeth." It will be presented in the Greek Theater at Cranbrook for four performances, Thursday through Sunday, June 14, 15, 16, and 17.

The plot of this play, which is ideally suited for the Greek Theater is a tribute to man's indestructibility, summed up in the history of a family who have survived fire, flood, pestilence, the seven-year locusts, the ice age, and the double feature, a dozen wars and as many depressions.

Alternately bewitched, befuddled or beamed, they have survived a thousand calamities by the skin of their teeth.

Jervis B. McMechan is directing the production, assisted by his wife, who is production manager. The sets have been designed by Mrs. Winston T. Kellogg.

Others on the technical staff include Mrs. Edward T. Bennett and Mrs. Charles Coward, properties; James Schneider, lights; Mrs. Anthony Ransdell, costumes; W. H. Adams, set construction; Mrs.
