

Musical Meets, Nov. 8

Members of the Birmingham Musicale will gather at the Community House at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, November 8, for a program to be presented by two Musicale members.

Mrs. Evelyn Scheyer, pianist, is a native of Holland. She studied music in Amsterdam, Brussels and New York, receiving the state degree in theory and practice of music at the Hague in 1928. She will present the work of Jacob Hindemith and Bartok.

Mary Jane Walker, the other artist on the program, graduated from Kansas State Teachers College, department of music, in 1940. She taught vocal music in the Detroit public schools for five years, and has appeared in oratorio and concert programs throughout the middle-west. She is now singing at Christ Church Cranbrook, and is a director of the Birmingham Musicale Madrigal Group.

MRS. RUTH KILLEEN is chairman of the day. The tea committee is headed by Mrs. Alvin H. Knorr and Mrs. James J. Hogan, and is composed of Mrs. Glen M. Davis, Mrs. Elmer G. Gove, Mrs. Carl F. Hesse, Mrs. George P. Nelson and Mrs. Walter Barkley. Mrs. Walter Anderson will arrange the tea tables.

Serving on the hostess committee are Mrs. Edward G. B. Fry, Mrs. Earl Bartholomew and Mrs. Harold Webster.

Mrs. George Souster and Mrs. Robert Onderdonk head the house and stage committee.

Sigma Kappa Alumnae Form Suburban Group

The alumnae of Sigma Kappa sorority have recently reorganized their groups to accommodate the increasing number of suburban residents. Designated by Pan-Hellenic as group number 11, the North Woodward members will hold their meetings on the first Tuesday evening of each month.

The next meeting will be held at 8:30 on Tuesday, November 6, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Clements, 4503 Groveland, Royal Oak. All local Sigma Kappa alumnae not already contacted are urged to attend. Further information or transportation may be obtained from Mrs. Robert C. Wandel.

Bride Wears Heirlooms for Evening Vows

When Nancy Neumann met Walter Teninga before the flower and candle banked altar of Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday evening, October 27, she was wearing "something old" from both her family and that of the groom. The long rosepoint lace panel, which long fitted sleeves. The bridal bouquet consisted of white anemones centered by orchids, and set off by trailing posied greens.

Mrs. Teninga wore rust lace with a natural flower hat, and green orchids.

for her daughter's wedding, and a deeper blue velvet hat and bag. Pinned to her bag were cymothium orchids.

MRS. WALTER TENINGA

MRS. PERRY WILLIAMS came from Sharon, Pa., to act as matron of honor. She and the bridesmaids, Patricia Daley, Marilyn Gould, Mrs. B. William Heffner of Circleville, Ohio, Mrs. William P. Wells, and the groom's sister, Mrs. Stephen K. Fasman of Chicago, were dressed alike in full-length dresses of a deep coral shade corded taffeta, with low-fiche necklines and full skirts. They wore white gloves and carried variegated anemium ranging from pale pink to deep coral. Swags of palms greens in their bouquets matched sprigs in their hair.

FOLLOWING a reception at the Detroit Boat Club, the Teningas flew to Sea Island. When the young couple left, Nancy was wearing a light beige cashmere wool dressmaker suit, topped with a short fur jacket. Her shoes and bag were adigan.

On their return, the Teningas will make their home in Dalton, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago.

Moms to Hold Bake Sale

The Birmingham Moms, Unit No. 3, are sponsoring a bake sale to be held in the Jacobson's store on West Maple road on Friday, November 9, at 9:30. Mrs. Edwin P. Snyder, social chairman, is in charge of the event. Proceeds will be used for social service work.

All Moms are asked to contribute food stuff to the sale. Any Mom who has clothing, canned goods, or any other gift for the Moms' work is asked to contact Mrs. P. G. Burnett, 563 Hanna Street, Mrs. Earl H. Sibley, Riverside drive, or Mrs. Edwin S. Snyder of Colonial court, and arrange for the contribution to be picked up.

The Moms will hold their regular meeting on the evening of Thursday, November 15.

Fiftieth Anniversary Marked by Dinner Party

Nineteen guests attended the dinner for members of the family and friends who joined in celebrating the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gaskill of 225 Frank street.

The Golden Anniversary dinner was held at the home of the Gaskill's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gaskill on Stanley street. Also present were the couple's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Erb of Lake Orion.
