Game Dinners

Henry Jokela, who has been on several hunting trips last weekend invited friends to help dispose of his catch. Friday evening he and Mrs. Jokela served duck to their sons, Milton and Russell and their families. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. David P. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Vermer Walli and Mrs. Minnie Walli of Detroit joined them for a pleasant dinner.

Fashion Show

Over a hundred attended the Walnut Lake Women's club Luncheon and Fashion show at Rotunda Inn Thursday. Mrs. Parker Rockwell, Mrs. John Phelps, Mrs. Edward Sintz and Mrs. Marion Noble were in charge. Mrs. Ray Fletcher, Mrs. Mahlon Sutton and Mrs. George Osterbeck were the local models.

PTA Open House

PTA open house will be held at the school on Monday, Nov. 12. Each room will have a work display. Teachers will tell about the work done by her class. The program is being arranged by Miss Marjorie Votey and the teachers and the program committee of the PTA, John Woodman, Mrs. Regina Smith and Kelly Sundstrom.

Scout Activities

Cub Scouts held their monthly Pack meeting at the school Tuesday evening. Nature was the theme for the month and each diet had a display of things that they had collected. All had been on hikes with den dads. Cubmaster Ed Sintz, inducted Robert Hemingway, Gerald Gibson and Billy Nech as being members. Other awards were presented, also.

Girl Scouts and Brownies met at the school for a joint singing meeting Monday. Mrs. John Parkins, Mrs. Regina Smith, Mrs. Robert Schaula and Mrs. Edson Stevens were assisted by Beverly Nech in leading the singing program. The girls sang songs from the Girl Scout Vesper service were practiced and camp songs learned. The Christmas program will be held at the school Nov. 19.

Wednesday Mrs. Lee D. Hanson and Mrs. John Parkins went to the workshop meeting for Brownie leaders at the Community House. Mrs. Edson Stevens and Mrs. William Nech attended the meeting for experienced Girl Scout leaders at the cabin at Springdale Park. New methods and crafts were learned by both groups. The committee for Troop 58 met at the home of Mrs. Edson Stevens Monday evening. Mrs. Richard King, Nech, Kelly Sundstrom, Mrs. Donald Shank and Mrs. William Nech made plans for the meetings until Christmas. Ground plans were made for a progressive dinner which the girls will cook and serve early in December.

Men's Club Elects

The Walnut Lake Men's club has elected new officers. They are Don Benway, president; Otis Zahm, vice president; Ernest Jacobson, secretary; Harry Board, treasurer; Bill Bishop, assistant treasurer.

The Men's club gave a Halloween party Saturday evening in the club rooms. William Unsworth was in charge of the entertainment.

We Heard It Said By—

Wylie E. Groves, city plan board member: "In considering rezoning, one matter that concerns me is that we can zone property but not the human element. A person may live up to zoning regulations in all ways, but still make a poor looking use of his property."

Villa Rezoning Considered by Planning Board

If the city rezones property on the south side of Villa, between Columbia and Eton, from single home to multiple residence classification, the Lincoln Construction Co. plans to erect approximately nine brick duplex units there.

PLANNING BOARD members at the meeting and asked various questions concerning the proposed development. Before any approval is given by the plan board, the construction company has been asked to submit plans for the homes. Further discussion was tabled until Nov. 14
