GAA Bowling Teams Formed

By VIRGINIA ROBERTSON

GAA bowling teams from Birmingham high school have organized and will meet Thursdays after school at the Birmingham Recreation.

Members of team one are Carol Pilon, Beverly Lewis, Evelyn Bernier, and Virginia Robertson, captain. Bowlers of team two are Pat Hubbard, Judith Anderson, Teresa DeLosRios, and Jo Birrell, captain. Team three members are Jean Donnelly, Fran Smith, Sis McFarlan, and Nancy Atchley, captain.

On team four are Judy Millman, Joanne Wagner, M. L. Sharples, and Nancy DuCharme. Members of team five are Shirley Hartkopf, Betty Buckley, Helen Williams, and Pat Simonsen, captain. Comprising team six are Maribel Zimmerman, Jean Flores, Nancy Bears, and Kathy Maynahan, captain.

TEAM SEVEN, Sandra Henderson, Marlene Latham, Betty Rossman, and Margaret Norris, captain. Elizabeth Kurtz and Nancy Knecht are members of team eight. On team nine are Jo Wiesler, Jodie Sawyer, Sally Wright, and Jean Stillman, captain. Acting as substitutes for all teams are Kay Macensin, Nancy Cupp, and Alice Basford.

The teams compete against each other with all members bowling three games an afternoon. In the spring, trophies will be presented to the bowler with the highest game score, the team with the highest average, the bowler with the highest season average, and the bowler with the second highest season average.

Attend Meeting Of Future Nurses

Last Thursday morning Birmingham students Patricia Hubbard and Ann MacDonald were among delegates from all over Michigan who attended the second annual meeting of the future nurses club at the University of Michigan. They were accompanied by Miss Francis Curtin, public school nurse.

The delegates assembled in the auditorium where a business meeting was held and an address was given by Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, director of the department. At 12:30 the representatives were luncheon guests of the Michigan nursing association at the Women's league. Following the dinner Dr. Deborah Bacon, dean of women spoke briefly.

The student nurses of St. Joseph's Mercy hospital presented a slide show of uniforms. From various hospitals and branches of the armed forces nursing corps, nurses of the campus, St. Joseph's Mercy hospital and the University hospital followed.

Ramshackle Inn' Opens Wednesday

By CAROLYN BRYANT

Wednesday night an appreciative audience saw the opening of the mystery farce "Ramshackle Inn" in Birmingham high school auditorium.

This play, which was presented on Broadway, is the story of a scatter-brained librarian from a small town who buys an old dilapidated inn so that she can meet different people every day, and in the process she walks blindly into the middle of a smuggling ring in the cellar of the inn. All of this adds up to a fast-moving exciting plot.

Tickets for "Ramshackle Inn" are sold by members of the 1952 Washington school, each receiving half the price of every ticket sold.

Leading in the sale of tickets are Sandra Fischer with 210 tickets; Elizabeth Kurtz, 71; Nancy Clinger, 67; Carolyn Bryant, 66; Gwen Steele, 53; Nancy McCall, 48; Claire Anderson, 45; and Sara Dunn, 40.

Formal Dance at Cranbrook Friday

"Autumn Leaves" has been selected by the Social Committee of Cranbrook school as the theme for the year's first formal dance.

Under chairmanship of Jim Patterson, the dance is expected to attract about 300 students and faculty to the Cranbrook School Auditorium Friday evening from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. Jack Rosecut and his orchestra will play.

Chaperones will include Headmaster and Mrs. Harry D. Hoy and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce N. Coulter.

Sixty Swimmers Out for Practice

Starting practice early, the Birmingham high school swimming team had a good turnout of 60 boys.

Of this largest group in the school's history, 30 are newcomers. Eleven lettermen are returning, including two of last year's divers, Larry Coleman and Gordon Yates.

This year's team will be drilled for a new schedule by Coach J. Jay Myers, who feels that in the last two weeks the boys have showed the potentialities of a very good squad.

To Visit High School

Miss Celeste F. Griffin of the admission office at Pembroke College in Bristol University, Providence, R. I., will visit Birmingham high school Friday.

Miss Griffin is on a tour of schools in Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Kentucky and Upstate New York where she will visit schools and confer with school officials on curricula and teaching programs.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.
