Practice Starts In YMCA Cage League

Teams and players interested in participating in Birmingham's YMCA Intramural basketball league met in the Baldwin high school gymnasium Monday evening, according to Ed Kirbert, local Y secretary.

At that time, players tried out for one of the four teams which comprise the league.

A practice session is scheduled November 28, with abbreviated games taking place Dec. 3. Regular season gets underway Dec. 10, providing enough players register.

KIRBERT STATED. "Newcomers to Birmingham are urgently requested to contact the 'Y' or put in their appearance Monday evening."

North Chevrolet All-Stars will defend their league play-off title while 'Y' Married Men are seeking players to fill out their ranks in order to retain the regular season championship which they copped last year.

League rules and requirements are available at the YMCA office at 144 West Maple.

Building Requests Referred to Egbert For Study, Report

Rose has petitioned the city for paving and water mains on Cheltenham, between Sheffield and Dunstable, and on Sheffield and Dunstable between Melton and Cheltenham.

Referring to lots which they own on the northwest corner of Melton and Sheffield, the company has asked permission to "turn the lots around."
