AAUW Child Study Group Will Open Class in January

Harrassed young mothers and puzzled parents may learn many of the reasons for their offspring's behavior by attending the AAUW's Child Study Group meetings, which will begin January 15th. The sessions, which will be held on the third Tuesday of each month, will feature lectures by outstanding authorities in the field of child study and care.

Question and answer sessions will follow each lecture, allowing those present to bring the discussion around to specific problems.

"EMOTIONAL Stages of Children" will be the topic of the initial meeting.

The speaker will be Mr. George Roeper, headmaster of the City and Country School of Bloomfield Hills. Mr. Roeper, a philosophy and psychology major, studied in both Germany and Switzerland. He has been in his present position for the last ten years.

The Child Study group of AAUW is being reactivated under the co-directionship of Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mrs. Benjamin Kingsbury. Like other AAUW Study groups, it welcomes anyone interested in its programs.

Specific information may be obtained from Mrs. Clark E. Pardee, Jr.

B'ham Families in St. Dunstan Show

"Ah Wilderness", the second play of the season to be presented by St. Dunstan's Guild, will be a "family affair" on stage.

The cast of fifteen includes a father and daughter, mother and son, and two brothers, all members of the Guild.

"Ah Wilderness" is the story of the Miller family. Nat Miller is played by Dean Coffin, with Cella Coffin playing the young sister. Bill Saunders will enact the part of the Miller's young son Richard, while Gordon Saunders, Jr., will portray his older brother.

Sid Davis has been cast in the role of the brother-in-law, and Theo Davis is to be the old maid sister-in-law.

OTHER MEMBERS of the cast are Dave Burnett, Mary Marquis, Barbara Fields, John Knecht, Lewis Keenan, Jr., Dottie Wright, John Sanders, Izzy Blanchard, and Travis Hubbard.

Sheldon Noble is the director of the production, to be held on the weekends of November 30-December 1, and December 7-8. Tickets may be obtained from Grinnell's or at the door.

Air Force Lieutenant Claims Bride in Candlelight Ceremony

Virginia Ruth Krause, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Krause of Buckingham road, Beverly Hills, and Lt. Robert Foss USAF, son of Bridemaid Mary Foss of Richmond and Mrs. Daniel Fenner of Detroit wore dresses identical to the brides attendants. Their flowers were yellow baby mums.

Douglas Frits was the best man. Jerry Nices (and Edward Schack) seated the 300 guests who attended the double-ring ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Krause wore a gown of royal blue lace-over taffeta, with accessories of winter white.

Mrs. Foss selected a bronze taffeta dress with matching accessories. Both mothers wore white orchids.

ELLYN FOSS of Richmond sang several solos during the rite, which were immediately followed by a reception at Dearborn Inn.

When the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to the Smokies, the bride was wearing a two-piece black faille suit dress, with black velvet hat, shoes and bag. The orchid from her bridal bouquet formed her corsage.

After the first of December, Lt. and Mrs. Foss will make their home on North Gratiot, Mount Clemens, where Lt. Foss is stationed at Selfridge Field.

MRS. ROBERT FOSS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Foss of Richmond, Michigan, were wed by candlelight before the flower-banked altar of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church of Detroit, at 7:30 Saturday evening, November 17.

The bride repeated her vows before the Rev. C. G. Reidel in an ankle-length gown with a full nylon tulle skirt, and ivy-figured bodice of imported chantilly lace. Holding her fingertip veil was a matching lace cap edged with pearls tucked into tulle.

She carried a bouquet of a white orchid and stephanotis.

MRS. LEROY KROEGER was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a mime green ballerina length dress of nylon tulle. Her flower halo of rust baby mums matched her bouquet.
