News About GIRL SCOUTS

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 21 of the Bloomfield Village Girl Scouts is under the leadership of Mrs. W. J. McCortney, Mrs. S. J. Gillen and Mrs. Harner Solvidge.

Members of the troop are actively working on First Class Badges. The girls also collect book shelves to be used in their troop meeting room.

They have taken hikes, and collected leaves which were used in making leaf booklets with covers spatter-painted in leaf designs. On these hikes the girls also collected neat pods, berries and nuts to be used in exhibits in the troop room.

On Halloween, the troop had a party at the home of Mrs. McCortney.

PIERCE SCHOOL BROWNIES TROOP 65

Brownie troop 65 of Pierce school held an investiture ceremony Monday, November 12, at the home of Mrs. Charles Mason of 1510 South Bates street.

Participating in the ceremony were Pat Mason, Janet Oliver, Celesta Lorenzen, Mary Kay Donaldson, Sue Wood, Janet Ferguson and Faye Walters.

ALSO TAKING part were Bonnie Banners, Sandra Larch, Julie Reed, Barbara Mudge and Lorraine Schaefer.

Joann Rayman and Gail Atkins were ill and could not attend. The Brownies served cupcakes topped with the Brownie emblem to their mothers after the ceremonies.

TROOP 38, ADAMS SCHOOL

A special investiture service was held for two members of this troop. Penny Ball and Sandra Calhoun have joined Troop 38 of Intermediate Girl Scouts. Following the meeting, the treat was served by Ann Brda.

Barbara McKee, who has moved to Vassar, Michigan, will be missed by the Scouts in this troop. Plans are being made to sing Christmas Carols at the homes of shut-ins, and carol practice is a part of each meeting.

TROOP 52, PIERCE SCHOOL

At the last meeting of this troop, the Brownies made Christmas cards from apples and cloves to be sold at the school fair. Penny Ann Hunt was the hostess and served the nibbles.

The Brownies voted to go to the Candy Kitchen Shop to see candy being made, and have also decided to make cloth dolls and beds from oatmeal boxes. They will be sent to the Maybury Sanatorium at Christmas.

TROOP 35, PIERCE SCHOOL

A new group of Brownies was recently invested at Pierce School. The members of Troop 35 are Susan Adair, Shirley Bowers, Margaret Chamberlain, Merrily Hamilton, Patricia Hesselberg, Marie McCluskey, Nancy and Sharon Richardson, Linda Stanley, Judy Wampler, Dawn DeVorier, Nancy Gould, Donna Merritt, Sandy Wall and Charlene Olsen.

The Brownie story was read by the group. Leaders of the troop are Mrs. Donald Hesselberg and Mrs. Donald Richardson.

The Brownies invited their mothers to this special meeting, and later served grape juice and cookies. A trip to the cider mill at the next meeting of this troop.

TROOP 60, WALNUT LAKE

Scribe Virginia Irwin reports that Troop 60 has sanded and painted several pieces of furniture for the clubroom. They have also started to make Christmas gifts for their parents.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE BROWNIES

Sue Gantner, scribe of troop 55 of the Bloomfield Village Brownies, reports that at the first meeting of the troop on October 8, Fatty Eakins was chosen president; Sharon Kelly, treasurer; Sue Gantner, vice president and scribe; and Sara Bartholomew, secretary.

Following the elections, the group made hater twirlers.

On October 15, troop 55 visited the Franklin Cider Mill, and on October 22 Jackie Paulus celebrated her birthday by a cook-out at her home for the Brownies.

A short business meeting was held October 29, after which the girls made felt purses.
