MRS. JACK LEROY OVERMAN

street, when she met Jack Leroy Overman at the altar of Christ Church Cranbrook Friday evening, November 23.

Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mancel E. Overman of Scarsdale, New York. The Rev. William H. Mead officiated at the double-ring ceremony which took place at 8:30 o'clock.

The Hartnell designed bridal gown was of blue silk satin with a tight bodice flowing into a full skirt and long train. Long fitted sleeves fell from an off-the-shoulder neckline, finished with illusion lace.

The bride's long veil was also of illusion lace, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

E. McCleary of Michigan City, Indiana, and the groom's cousin Milan F. Beatty of Lincoln, Nebraska.

The bride's mother wore a mauve gown of antique silk taffeta, trimmed in bands of matching lace, with a Juliet cap of the same shade. Her flower was a purple orchid.

The bride's son's wedding, Mrs. Overman chose a dress of toast colored chantilly lace over chiffon, with turquoise blue gloves and hat. Her corsage was of small rubrum lilies.

A RECEPTION at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club followed the ceremony. When the couple left on their wedding to the Pocono mountains, the bride was wearing a brown flannel suit trimmed in brown velvet. Her fall skirt was lined in yellow taffeta. She wore a gardenia corsage from her bouquet.

The Overmans will be at home in White Plains, New York, after the first of December.
