Fike-Baldwin. Nuptials Held At Bride's Orchard Lake Home

Simplicity was the keynote of the ceremony which joined Virginia Fike Baldwin and Harry Butram Fike in marriage November 24.

The Rev. Marshall, of the First Presbyterian Church of Pontiac, read the service at 3:30 Saturday afternoon, before a background of ferns and white mums in the Orchard Lake home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Baldwin.

Harry is the son of Bertram De Witt Fike of Toledo, Ohio, and Mrs. Elythe Sayen of Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Hugo Miller came from her home in Orlando, Florida, to be her sister's bridesmaid. Her gown was an emerald shade of velvet.

MRS. HARRY BUTRAM FIKE

THE BRIDE repeated her vows in the white satin gown worn by her sister, Mrs. Hugo S. Miller. The fitted bodice was topped by a square neckline, edged in illusion lace. The long sleeves tapered to points over the hands, and her train was of medium length.

The bride's lace and satin cloche cap was nipped with clusters of orange blossoms over each ear, and held her elbow length illusion veil.

She carried a bouquet of staphylo-nous, amaranth lilies and ivy.

Elsa Baldwin was her sister's maid of honor in a full length gown of apple-blossom velvet. It featured a collar, and the front of her skirt was drawn up by gathers at the waist.

Mrs. Alhastair Dunn, former chairman of the group, is moving to Buffalo. She will be succeeded as chairman by Mrs. Ernest W. Anderson.

DWIGHT JOHNSON of Toledo, Ohio, served as best man. The bride's mother, Mrs. Baldwin, was wearing a street length gown of rose beige lace, topped with a tiny capelet. Green cypripedium orchids formed her corsage.

Mrs. Sayen, the mother of the groom, was gowned in mauve crepe, and wore deep purple orchids.

Following a reception at the Baldwin home, the newlyweds flew to the Hotel Caribe Hilton in San Juan, Puerto Rico, where they will spend several weeks.

The bride selected a coca garbancine suit with a matching hat, and alligator accessories for her departure.

On their return the Fikes will make their home in Detroit.
