

U. of M. Students
Serve as Aides at
Nov. 27 Reception

ANN ARBOR — Barbara A. Johnson and David L. Higgins, Birmingham students at the University of Michigan, were chosen to serve as aides in the reception following the inauguration of Harlan Hatcher as president of the University on Tuesday, November 27.

The reception, held at the Michigan League, was open to the public. The new president and his wife greeted official delegates from 313 colleges and from 144 learned societies, as well as faculty members, students, alumni and visitors.

BARBARA, of 27333 Goldensgate drive, is a freshman in the Medical School. She is a member of the League Council of women's activities, and served as head of orientation for new students following the inauguration in the fall. She poured at the reception.

David, of Orchard Ridge road, Bloomfield Hills, represented the Naval ROTC in a skit honoring guard escorting President and Mrs. Hatcher to the reception.

Naval Ensign Wed
To Marianne Kull
In Ann Arbor Vows

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kull of Colonial Court announce the marriage of their daughter, Marianne, to William David Gilmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Norman Gilmore of Pleasant Ridge.

The couple were wed at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, November 21, at St. Andrew's in Ann Arbor. The Rev. Cook performed the ceremony which was attended by the immediate families.

Barbara Krause of Rockford, Michigan, attended the bride, and Richard Boonstra of St. Joseph, Michigan, was the best man.

The wedding dinner for close members of the family and the attendants was held at Dearborn Inn. Immediately afterwards the couple left for a short trip to Chicago.

The bride will return to her studies at the University of Michigan where she is in her senior year. The groom, a newly-commissioned ensign, will report to active duty with the Navy on the west coast.
