Walnut Lake Locals
Harvest supper and bazaar at West Bloomfield Town hall tonight, Thursday, from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Philip Enrich, Mrs. John Parkins, John Smith, John Woodman and Edson Stevens attended the meeting of the Birmingham PTA council Monday evening at the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woodman and daughter Janet spent the holiday weekend visiting friends near Chicago, Ill. They were with the Howard Stromquist of Lake Forest who formerly lived at Walnut Lake for Thanksgiving Day. They also spent a day with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Sanden at Mount Prospect and a day with Mr. and Mrs. R. Bradner Hilliard at Elmhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morton and Jack Reynolds drove to Mrs. Morton's mother's home in McMinnville, Tenn. for the long weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Fitzgerald of Flint and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cramer of Alban Hights. Their daughter Anne returned to Flint with her grandparents to visit her cousins Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fitzgerald.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Heller had a family dinner for 15 relatives at their home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Stevens and Leslie and Edson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts and their daughters, Louisa, Mary and Margaret for Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dingwall entertained his family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dingwall of Detroit, in their new home on the holiday.

Brownie and Girl Scouts
The leaders of the Brownie troop and the Intermediate troop met at the school Monday afternoon to share their experiences and resources. Plans were made to have the girls lead some of the singing around the Community Christmas tree on Sunday evening, Dec. 23, at 6:00 p.m. The girls will make donations of toys or clothing for the baskets that the

Complete Fencing In Harmon Park
A fence on the Woodward side of Harmon Park has been completed. It also extends approximately 100 feet west of Woodward on Harmon.

City Manager Donald C. Ebert said the primary purpose of the fence is to keep balls from rolling onto Woodward and having the participants chasing after them.

The city manager pointed out that no fence is planned for the west side of the park. He said adjoining property owners do not favor such development at this time.

School Board's Share Of Lincoln Pavement Is Set At $5,994.92
Commissioners have submitted a bill of $5,994.92 to the Birmingham board of education as its share of the Lincoln paving from Thore to Taunton. The city will pay the remaining costs of $3,994.92.

Several months ago the school officials entered an agreement with the city to stand half the expense, providing it did not exceed $7,000.

General news deadline is 4:30 p.m. each Tuesday.

Women's Club Party
Tuesday evening, Dec. 4 the Women's club will hold a Christmas party instead of a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Sweet. The committee for the evening is Mrs. William Thiede, chairman, Mrs. Frank Merton, Mrs. Frank Sweet, Mrs. Thomas Snyder, Mrs. Richard McKay, Mrs. Angus K. Smith, Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald and Mrs. John Parkins.

Youth Club Formed
The Walnut Lake Youth club held its first meeting at the clubhouse at Beach 2 and elected these officers: Peggy Hemmingsway, president; Lynn Granger, vice-president; Anne Fitzgerald, secretary; Greg Smith, treasurer; Stewart Schultz, corresponding secretary; Tim Selner, publicity chairman.

Joe and Mary Dingwall led the group in leading, folks and square dances. Lynn Granger and Joe Dingwall played the piano and records were used for the square dances. Mrs. Roland Walton provided the refreshments.

The executive board met at the home of Mrs. Walton Tuesday afternoon to make plans for the club. Sharon McKay was appointed refreshment chairman. The committee for the next meeting is Elaine Palmer, McKay, Mrs. Ann Charles, Caldwell and Jan Overgard.

The next meeting will be Saturday, Dec. 1, at 7:30 p.m. when Mrs. Richard McKay will assist them with ballroom dancing and the Dingwalls will help them with more folk and square dances.
