THE MORE THAN 400 POUNDS of blankets and quilts collected at a meeting of the Birmingham Council of Church Women are being inspected by (left to right) Mrs. Richard C. Fowler, Mrs. George K. Meeks and Mrs. Stuart Allen. The blankets were received Friday at the First Presbyterian church as a part of the Council's World Community Day program, and will be sent to homeless persons in Korea. The guest speaker was Miss Jane Williams, who returned from Berlin only a few hours before her program appearance. (Dick Shirk Photo)

Keynote Speaker At Convention of Sigma Delta Chi

When the thirty-second national convention of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity, convenes in Detroit Nov. 10-12, Lee A. White, 622 Brookside, will be keynote speaker. White is director of public relations and chief librarian for The Detroit News. While a journalism professor at the University of Washington, he organized the fraternity's first professional chapter, the Seattle "Sigma Delta Chi alumni club." He has been national president, national historian, Quill editor for five years, and twice was awarded the Wells Memorial key, the fraternity's highest honor. The Quill is the official monthly publication of Sigma Delta Chi.

Football Movies Slated for Sideline Quarterbacks Meeting

Movies of the Michigan State College-Ohio State football game will be shown in room 101, Birmingham High school, Monday evening, Nov. 12, according to Vern Bryant, president of the Birmingham Sideline Quarterbacks. George Guerra, former Spartan ace halfback, will narrate. In addition, John Pchlik, Detroit Lion tackle will speak. The public is welcome to this program sponsored by the "Quarterbacks."
