Mr. and Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond of Willets received friends after the concert to meet their houseguests, Floyd Starr, founder of the Starr Commonwealth, his assistant, Arthur G. Wolfe, and the organization's executive secretary, Miss Martha Seligman. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Haugh and Mr. and Mrs. Perry.

Christmas Boxes Sent Abroad By Oakland County Children

The hand of friendship will stretch across oceans this Christmas, when school children overseas receive the nearly 1,500 gift boxes sent to them by school children in Oakland County.

Before each box is ready to start on its way overseas, each must be inspected by a committee selected by Mrs. Robert F. Kahr, chairman of the Junior Red Cross in Oakland County.

Among those working on the project, inspecting and repacking the gift packages, are the Mesdames David B. Mott, William M. Hutchins, Edward J. Foster, John Trogner, Nicholas Martin, Jr., Henry M. Dahlquist, Jr., Charles W. Lewis, William Merrill, William E. Roberts and William B. Hulbert.

Children in countries selected by the American Red Cross overseas personnel will find health, school and personal items inside the wrappings of the Junior Red Cross boxes.

National headquarters of the American Red Cross authorizes this activity as a very real expression of good will between American children and the youth of foreign lands.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Haugh and Mr. and Mrs. Perry.

TROOP 52 PIERCE
The Brownies in this troop had a cook-out at Dodge Park, which was the occasion for learning a few fire-making tricks. Gathering fuel and building the fire was worth all the effort when the hot dogs, Halloween treats and pop were tasted. Joan L. Bidzy, scribe and hostess for this Halloween outing, reports that they put out their fire thoroughly when the cook-out was over.

TROOP 26 PIERCE
Sue Pavis, Scribe for this troop reports the following new officers elected last week: president, Calla Reasoner; secretary, Marilyn Van Schoel; treasurer, Carol Thomas, Mary E. Bleakley; cleanup committee, Joan Vinton, Ann Fortune. Following songs and refreshments, plans were made for the cook-out and permission slips prepared. The salute and Girl Scout promise closed the meeting.

TROOP 54 PIERCE
Election of officers is the order of the day at most Scout meetings, and Martha Melly, scribe reporting for this troop, lists Connie Gordon, newly elected President, and Nancy Cummings, treasurer.
