B'ham Garden Club To Meet Nov. 12th

The Birmingham Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association Inc. will hold its monthly meeting at 10:30 Monday morning, November 12, at the Community House.

Mrs. Albert Allmayer of Detroit will present slides and a lecture on completed arrangements. Mrs. Allmayer, who will be presented by chairman of the day, Mrs. James M. Wilson, was instrumental in starting the first flower arranging classes in the Detroit Public Evening School at Redford High School.

At 12:30 a buffet luncheon will be served. The table will be decorated by Mrs. C. D. Hartsuff, Mrs. David L. Van Dusen, Mrs. J. C. Roberts, Mrs. Carl J. Nepper and Mrs. Kenneth Duff will pour.

FOLLOWING LUNCH a short business meeting will be held, after which Mrs. Allmayer will assist, at a Workshop. Members are asked to bring their own container and materials for their arrangements.

Tickets are available at Grinnell's or from committee chairmen Mrs. Raymond Morgan and Mrs. B. F. Magruder, and their committee, Mrs. James Murphy, Mrs. H. D. Mysing, Mrs. H. R. Nickerson and Mrs. Donald Price.

Foreign Student Gets AAUW Grant

The Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women has announced the award of the Hope Ferguson Lewis annual international grant for study on the graduate level.

This year's recipient of the grant, which is named for a past president and charter member of the Birmingham AAUW, is a native of Thailand, Miss Charoontasam Bukhamama, now studying methods of teaching English at the University of Michigan.

Miss Bukhamama taught English for eight years at a preuniversity college in Bangkok, and was cited for her outstanding work in the evacuation of women students from the invaded city during the war.

Garden Group Gathers

LATHRUP—Nov. 14 is the deadline for those wishing reservations for the Garden division luncheon to be held Nov. 16 at the Detroit Yacht club. Mrs. Karl Doren and Mrs. B. H. Holmes are in charge.

Following the luncheon, which will be served promptly at 12 o'clock, the group will go to the Belle Isle garden center, where they will hear an address by Mrs. George Bouton on "Gardening with Flowers Throughout the Year." A visit to the mums display will be scheduled if time permits.

Report to Be Presented

At the November 13th meeting of the Alpha Omega Alpha chapter of Alpha Chi Omega, a report of the national convention held at Roanoak, Virginia, last summer, will be presented by Mrs. Thomas Leslie, national secretary of the organization, and Mrs. E. J. Lonn, central counsellor.

The group will gather at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Arthur Thornbury of 392 Lakeshore drive. Sharing the duties of hostess will be Mrs. Reed Dewey, Mrs. William Haas, Mrs. Harold Heyni and Mrs. Robert Rouse.

St. Dunstan's Members To Search for Treasure

Members of St. Dunstan's Guild will don old clothes and, with flash light in hand, will gather Friday night, November 9, at the pavilion for their first social party of the season, a treasure hunt on the Cranbrook grounds.

Hunters will be directed toward their treasures by clues furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanders, Jervis McMechan, and Margery Smith.

Refreshments and informal dancing will follow the hunt. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hutton are in charge of entertainment, and refreshments are being handled by Mr. and Mrs. Harris Machus.

Puppeteers Prepare for Pre-Christmas Shows

The AAUW Puppeteers will assemble at the home of Mrs. Charles Bigelow of Pierce street at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, November 13, to continue intensive rehearsals for their pre-Christmas shows.

The Puppeteers have found temporary rehearsal space at Cranbrook, but are still looking for other quarters for later rehearsals.

The Puppeteers announce that their schedule is full for Christmas week and the week preceding, but will gladly consider requests for early December shows, if made soon enough.

New Slate of Officers Elected for 1951-52 by B'ham Business Women

At the October meeting of the Birmingham Business Women's Club a new slate of officers were elected for the 1951-52 year.

Heading the list is Gertrude Fox, newly elected president. She will be assisted by Bette Barstow, vice-president for the new term. Vernie Bosworth will handle the secretary's duties for the group.

The incoming treasurer is Margaret Tewilliager, and administering the Mary Griffith Loan Fund are chairman Thelma Zimmerman and Anna Hoover.

SERVING AS committee chairmen are Heniette Pearson, Nora Ead, Betty Graves, Margaret Dafoe, Marjorie Estes, Jane Hall, Edna Sprague, Edna Allen and Lucille Brown.

Also heading committees are Gina Mortimer, Dorothy Walker, Vera Olin, Louise Cobb and Marie Stauffer.

Hand-Woven Articles On Display Nov. 13

A display and sale of hand-woven articles from the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, will be a feature of the November meeting of Pi Phi alumnae on November 13.

Mrs. Ralph T. Coward, chairman of the Settlement School, will be hostess to the group for a luncheon meeting in her home, 125 Aspen road, at 12:30 Tuesday.

Assisting Mrs. Cowan will be Mrs. Charles G. Kinnison, Mrs. Richard Post, and Mrs. V. B. Watkins.

Want ads cannot be accepted after 5 p.m. each Tuesday.

Sale Aids League Of Handicapped

The Junior League's annual Christmas Sale for the League of the Handicapped will be held this year on November 13-14 at the home of Mrs. Richard Wallace on Lone Pine road.

The sale will begin at 10 a.m. and remain open until 5 p.m. All articles are made by the handicapped, and the proceeds go to them.

Mrs. Paul McKenney and Mrs. John Stevenson are co-chairmen of the event, and members of the Junior League will handle the sales duties.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lee Greer II of 2673 Bradway boulevard announce the birth of a daughter, Lindsey Ann, on October 18. Mrs. Greer is the former Daphne Craig of Chicago.

A son, York Brian McHugh, was born on October 30 to Mr. and Mrs. William J. McHugh of 227 Merrill street. Mrs. McHugh is the former Joy Steinhaugh of Grosse Pointe.
