

BEVERLY HILLS NEWS

By MARTHA ISSETTE

PHONE MI 4-3995
(Temporarily Substituting for Dorothy Kelly)

Baby Bits

The Newton Hadley family has two reasons to be proud. Mr. and Mrs. Hadley presented their son with a grandson, Michael Andrew, on Oct. 26th. Little Anthony, born at the St. Anthony, Texas, announced the arrival of Kristine Marjorie. Mrs. Blake and Mrs. Cynthia Hadley, and Mrs. Hadley were Burke Terres. Vases of pink and blue flowers with a tiny cloche filled with daisies was the table decoration when the J. Hubert Melasacs entertained after the christening of Michael Andrew Melasacs. The christening took place at the St. Ann parish in Detroit. The baby's parents are the Mrs. Carl Hasse and grandmother is Mrs. Carl Hasse.

Items of Interest

Pierce school fair has Winnie Zawodni of Madison road as chairman and Bob Fortune of Lakeside road, PTA president, assistant. There will be fun for everyone plus many booths for Christmas shopping. A complete dinner is also planned. The fair will close on Friday, Nov. 16.

Mrs. Carl Hasse is entertaining with a tea for the alumni of the Edna Chaffee Noble school of expression on Nov. 10. A business meeting is also scheduled for Mrs. Lieut. and Mrs. J. B. Southard, home on leave, are being entertained by friends and neighbors. Reversing things and becoming the hosts, the Southards gave a dinner party for the alumni of the Hounds for the Floyd Reynolds, Herbert Comiskey, and the John James. After the dinner the group returned to the Laica home for an evening party which included the Jack Irvan, George Murphy, and the Russell Posts.

One of the large Halloween parties of the area was given by the Beverly-Woodward improvement association. It was for everyone from baby to grandparents and prizes were awarded for each age group. The group of 200 assembled and paraded to the water tower, where the party was held. Cider and doughnuts, hot dogs and marshmallows were the bill of fare. Mr. and Mrs. Joel Riley were head of entertainment. The evening's festivities came to a close with group singing.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Racine have as their houseguest, Charles Racine from Birch Run.

Judith Irene Anderson, with her houseguest, Jack Ehling, attended the fall festival at Kingswood school. Miss Ehling had the starring role in a dance presented in the evening.

Mrs. Clem Geisler was hostess to her bridge club last week. Members attending were Mrs. A. C. Klamt, Fat Stapleton, Frances Shannon, Shirley Laica, Peggy Bird, Shirley Capinola, and Dorothy Kelly.

Everyone brought a sandwich and hostess Mrs. Planson served coffee and dessert at her home on dinner party, when a group met to complete their sewing on purses to be sold at the fall festival at Kingswood.

A new bridge club is being inaugurated and the first meeting was held last week. Mrs. Bill Wrigley as hostess. Members guests were Mesdames Phil DeKoster, Bureau, Frank Johnson and John Madonna.

All her friends and neighbors are happy to see Mrs. Paul Switzer home after her stay at Mt. Carmel hospital.

Beverly has another new family: the James H. Forbes, who live on Buckingham road. Forbes is district manager for Barcalo furniture. They have one son, Gordon 17, who is a freshman at Amherst college in Massachusetts.

General news deadline is 4:30 p.m. each Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beyer of 13 Mile road entertained in honor of daughter Judith's ninth birthday last Saturday. Helping Judy enjoy her cake and ice cream were Penny Blunt, Debbie DeVal, Mary Lou Cozart, Sharon Dietrich, Cheryl Zehede, Nancy Foster, Marian Ginnman, Joan Pitsch, Nancy and David Foster, Jay and Michael Orcutt, and Judy's brother Ron.

Shirley Laica's home was the scene of a Sarah Coventry jewelry demonstration last Thursday evening. The refreshments were served to Mesdames James Kelly, John Capinola, Robert Stapleton, James Shannon, Clem Geisler, Calvin Pearl, Russell Post, George Murphy, H. Brewer Salter, Klamt and Peggy Bird.

Tuesday, Nov. 6, Mrs. John Capinola had a demonstration of the jewelry at her home. Those present were Edlem Collins, Mrs. John Fletcher, Mary Brewer Pat Stapleton, Dorothy Kelly, Shirley Laica, Margaret Geisler, Betty Baker, Lucille Begnoche, Miriam Taggart and the hostess' mother Mrs. Ward Peck.

A tea for mothers of Miss Merritt's kindergarten children was held at Lois Murphy's home on Verona. Room mothers Ann George and Hazel Ditterich were assistant hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bernardini and daughter Kathy of Rochester, N. Y. were weekend guests of the Lewis Bernardinis on Birchwood road.

A tea given by the Goodwill Industries in the home of Mrs. Robert Larson was of great interest to residents on Arlington, Auburn and Sheridan roads. Mrs. Helen Kopka was the speaker. She stressed the need to acquaint new residents of the area with Goodwill policies and functions.

Butter-toed out-doorables... our cloud-light pussy-foots of bright antique red calf, with flexible platforms to waft you over every pebble and cobblestone with floating ease. It's an easy-going handsewn moccasin by the skilled craftsmen of old Maine Trotter... to let your feet purr as you walk... they're that soft!

12.95

All her friends and neighbors are happy to see Mrs. Paul Switzer home after her stay at Mt. Carmel hospital.

Beverly has another new family: the James H. Forbes, who live on Buckingham road. Forbes is district manager for Barcalo furniture. They have one son, Gordon 17, who is a freshman at Amherst college in Massachusetts.

Party Doings

Stevie Hall will be ten years old and is celebrating with a luncheon and movie party in his home on Nov. 10. He has invited his fellow Cubs Billy Perkins, Mike Kelly, Frank Murphy, and Bob Simpson. Happy birthday Stevie.

Helen Hensick entertained her sewing club. Guests were Betty Hall, Kitty Perkins, Isabelle Danville, Irene Anderson, Helen Moss, Peggy Brindle.

Arnauld Issette attended a Halloween party given by Gail Christie in her home on Southfield road.

Quarton School Library Reports Large Circulation

Quarton school library began its fall program on Sept. 27, and has been operating on Thursday and Friday each week under the direction of Mrs. E. W. Bardegett, library chairman.

These mothers have been working as assistants, Mrs. Reilly Bird, Mrs. E. P. Johnson, Mrs. William Busch, Mrs. J. E. Wellman, Mrs. Lance Minor, Mrs. Guy Briggs, Mrs. Fred Harley, Mrs. J. C. Cook, Mrs. Orville Beardley and Mrs. Marshall Keating.

This service includes grades three to six, with half hour periods for each group. Service is afforded to Grades one and two through the use of specially selected books brought in by means on hook trucks twice monthly. The work is being undertaken by Mrs. Hoyt W. Capps and Mrs. John S. Cooper.

During the first six weeks of the program this year, 378 books were circulated for home use and 489 books have been in use in the classroom.

A new feature of the program offered teachers this year is story telling and special exhibits of books throughout the year by Mrs. Richard Wernert.

OLDMAINE Trolleys
MEDICAL AND ORIGINAL

Jacobson's
Maple at Bates Birmingham

Have You Met...

The newcomers on 281 Glenhurst drive in Bloomfield Village. They are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Obley and their six children, Gregory, 8; Leona, 7; Phillip, 5; Michael, 3; Virginia, 2; and Christine, 5 months. Mr. Obley is the vice-president and shop superintendent of the Detroit Reamer and Tool Company.

New Listings at the Baldwin Library

- FICTION
- Bentley—Manowra
 - Richer—The Coyote and His Shark
 - Christie—Dunder Dog and Other Stories
 - Cartier—Nooddy Devil
 - De La Roche—Benny's Daughter
 - Dray—Rider of the Midnight Horse
 - Faulkner—Requiem for a Nun
 - Fisher—Age in Velvet
 - Goldwally—Cat for Partners
 - Hakel—Bittering Shores
 - Huddleston—The Claybrook
 - Hunter—The Hammer
 - Steinbeck—Red Pony
 - Stones—Crematorium Lady
 - Wentworth—Anna, Where Are You?
 - White—The Window
- SOCIAL SCIENCES
- Commons—Economics of Collective Action
 - Chandler—Inflation in the U. S., 1940-1948
 - Whitaker—American Resources
 - Somers—Subsidies for Farmers
 - Wilson—Consumer Economic Problems
 - Dinckel—American Government in Transition
 - Eliaison—Protecting Our Children from Criminal Careers
 - Randolph—We Always Live to Strangers
- HANDICRAFTS, FINE ARTS, SPORTS, ARTS
- Berwald—Items and Jewelry Today
 - Hast—Textile Design
 - Horn—Isis Tackle on Photographs
 - Butcher—From Eye to Camera
 - Carte—Better Victory Mined Book
 - Blaug—Packing Flies and Fly Fishing
 - Leary—Easy Ways of Gunstoning
 - Loose—Successful Diving
 - Garrett—Painting Materials
 - Wass—100 Handy Hints on How to Cook
 - Gabrielsen—Wildlife Management
 - Hull—Hunting and Tasting
- DESCRIPTION & TRAVEL, BIOGRAPHY
- Hussey—English Country Homes Open to the Public
 - Craig—Sighting Hills
 - Osborn—Northwoods Sketches
 - Braton—Photography
 - Fowler—Schmiedel's Story of Jimmy Durant
 - Zelner—No People Like Show People
- LIBRARY HOURS
- | | |
|-------------------|-----------|
| Monday - Thursday | 9:30-4:30 |
| Friday | 9:30-4:00 |
| Saturday | 9:30-5:00 |

PARENT-TEACHER ASSN. NEWS

To be included in this column, items must reach The Eclectic by Friday noon the week before publication.

'Safety' Will Be Topic At Walnut Lk. PTA Meet

The Walnut Lake PTA will hold its regular meeting at the school Monday evening at 8 p.m. After a short business meeting the officers of the Safety Patrol and Girl Squad will be introduced and explain their duties. A safety movie will be shown to the parents to emphasize the importance of attention to the rules of bicycle riding. Classrooms will be open and exhibits prepared by the children will be on display. The teachers will explain the aims of their classes and appointment sheets will be available for conferences during the week. Parents are urged to make appointments that night.

After the visiting period, members of the stamp committee will present the kit they have prepared. Refreshments will be served by third grade roommothers.

Torry PTA Opens Lecture Series

First in a series of monthly lectures sponsored by the Torry PTA will be held in the school Nov. 15 at 8 p.m.

Robert Hornbuckle, industrial psychologist, will speak on "Children Adjusting in the Society of Today."

Chairman, Mrs. Louis Randall, Jr., said the series is part of the adult education program and all are open to the public. Tickets will be on sale at the door. Refreshments and a social hour will be a part of each program.

PRIZE WINNING SCULPTOR AT WORK
William McVeey honored for second time

Cranbrook Instructor Wins Ceramics Award

William M. McVeey, sculpture instructor at Cranbrook Academy of Art, has been awarded first prize in the sixteenth ceramic national competition for the second consecutive year. His 14-inch terra cotta "Young One," designed in the sixteenth ceramic national competition for the second consecutive year. He has 14-inch terra cotta "Young One," designed in the sixteenth ceramic national competition for the second consecutive year. He has 14-inch terra cotta "Young One," designed in the sixteenth ceramic national competition for the second consecutive year.

Following four years in the Air Force, McVeey studied sculpture in Paris with Despiau and Gimond before coming to Cranbrook. He executed the relief on the San Jacinto monument near Houston and other examples of his work are at Cleveland, Minneapolis and Washington.

Quartette jr.

POCKET EDITIONS of Faberge's famous fragrances $3 the set of four Faberge's bonnie little set of four purse colognes in a gold-and-white gift box... an ideal gift for Christmas giving or for yourself right now. Your choice of your favorite fragrances... Act IV, Tigress, Woodhug, Straw Hat or Aphrodisia.

COSMETICS STREET LEVEL

PARKING AREA FOR YOUR SHOPPING CONVENIENCE

Wool Jersey

Colorful Blouses Rich Topping for Your Fall Skirts

Casual, comfortable three-quarter length sleeved blouses to liven your fall ensembles... ideal for suits, wonderful for spicing skirts. Sizes 32 to 38.

Top: Bib front, ribbed collar and button panel. Red, grey, gold, purple. 6.95

Bottom: Tailored collar with tie-fly front. Grey, gold, purple, red. 7.95

SPORTSWEAR STREET LEVEL

Jacobson's
Maple at Bates Birmingham

Republican Club to Hear County Court Official In Rochester On Monday

Joseph Bulone, student assistant to McVeey at Cranbrook won an honorable mention in the architectural-ceramic division, given annually for the best example of ceramic usage in collaboration with an architect. Cited by the jury was his heroic St. Rose of Lima, recently completed by Bulone for a Roman Catholic church in Houston.

The 16th Ceramic National Exhibition opened Nov. 3 at the Syracuse, N. Y. museum and will be on tour for a year throughout the United States and Canada.

Kiwanis Club to Name New Officers Nov. 13

Annual election of officers and directors of the Birmingham Kiwanis club will be held at its Nov. 13 meeting.

This week members of the Birmingham Toastmasters met with the Kiwanis at the Community House.

from PARIS to HER...
A HAND BEADED EVENING BAG

The tiniest, finest beading in the world (the French are incomparable at this)... all with unique detail and gorgeous frames.

from 10.95 to 89.50

LEON MI 4-0700-01
BIRMINGHAM, MICH.

Jacobson's
Maple at Bates Birmingham