By STU SCHEIFELE

Birmingham's game at Waterford last Friday was played in 35 degree temperature. However, the field was in excellent condition. For the first time in years every Maple player got in the game.
Pop Lewis, Berkeley head coach, and the Maples' next opponent, was the referee at Waterford. Hence the Maples can consider themselves thoroughly scouted.
The Maples picked up 285 yards rushing compared to Waterford's 23. Tom Tracy led with 124 yards in 11 tries and Gordon Mutch had 78 in 14 carries.

THE MAPLES' TWO future opponents, Berkeley and Royal Oak, had eight games last week. Berkeley lost to Van Dyke 20-18 while the Acorns squandered past Ferndale 7-0. Port Huron, Eastern Michigan league leader, walloped Grosse Pointe 32-4 in a non-league tilt.

John Burton sends word from Trinity College that he scored the first touchdown of his life in a game with Munson freshmen.
Berkeley, Maple foe tomorrow night, is the only Class B school on the schedule. With its size and proximity it seems to be a more suitable opponent than some of those regularly scheduled, including most league teams.
The movies of the Michigan State-Ohio State football game will be shown at the high school in room 101 next Monday night.

'Penny Fine' Party Held by Cast of 'Ramshackle Inn'

By NANCY JOHNSON
The "penny fine" party for members of the cast of "Ramshackle Inn" was given last week at the home of Director Miss Ruth Hill. The party is traditional with all play casts and is one of the less strenuous practices. Encouraged by a heated pep-talk by Miss Hill, the cast began reading lines until someone missed a line. After the guilty person had deposited a penny in the bowl in the center of the room, the reading was continued until all three acts were finished.
Tied for last place with most errors were Bill Anderson, Dick Emery and Harvey Peters, with 12 cents, while Rita Shauer ran a close second with 9 cents in fines.
Then the bowl of pennies was awarded to Miss Hill for her patience, and the play cast enjoyed refreshments.

Ergasterion to Present 'Janie'

For its twenty-third Christmas show, Cranbrook Ergasterion has selected "Janie," revised and adapted by Director Carl G. Wornberger, with musical score especially prepared for the production.
The show is slated Dec. 8-9, with the combined forces of Ergasterion and some members of the senior division of the Cranbrook summer theater school.
Assisting Wornberger will be Evans Miercke, and Warren Moore will have charge of all technical matters. James Robertson will adapt the New York set to the Cranbrook stage; Robert Sprague will manage scenery and lights, and Frank Huss will be business manager. Dean Rogers is in charge of posters.

Sophomore Class Wins Torch Drive Competition

At the closing of the Torch Drive at the high school last week $1387.39 had been collected, well over last year's total of $1,100.
Due to the difference in the enrollment of the classes, results of the drive, which was run as a class competition, were computed on an average per student basis.
The sophomores were first with $1,622 per student average or $452.78; seniors second with $1.42 per student average or $295.31; and the juniors were last with $1,222 average per student or $114.50.

Art Classes Visit Displays At Little Gallery

Birmingham high school art classes taught by Angelo Angelucci went on a field trip recently to the Little Gallery on East Maple where they saw many objects and displays of modern art.
Students saw many tapestries, ceramic works, modern paintings, lamps and chairs. The unusual pieces of driftwood and beautiful iron and stone sculptures were especially popular. Modern handmade jewelry also attracted favorable attention.
These exhibits are from the California arts and crafts Co. and are to be displayed in the Little Gallery until Nov. 17.

GAA Hockey Team Edges East Detroit

Birmingham's GAA hockey team defeated East Detroit 1-0 last Tuesday at Birmingham. Duane Henderson, assisted by Ann Rutledge, scored the only goal in the first half.
Playing for Birmingham were Francis Smith, Caron, Bill, and Nancy McNary, Alice Basford, Duane Henderson, Ann Rutledge, Barbara Adams, and Jimmie Birrell, Nancy McCall and Joanne Wagner.
There will be GAA skating every Wednesday at 7 p.m. and bowling every Thursday at 7 p.m.

BARNUM JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

Barnum's ninth grade football team lost a close game to Cranbrook 15-12 Wednesday. Barnum's points were scored on touchdowns by Jerry Craft and Captain Dick Morgan. The Cranes margin was a safety scored near the end of the second period.
Next show of the Barnum radio workshop, "Paul Bunyan's Cornstalk," will be broadcast on WCAE, Announcer on Nov. 8 at 1:45 p.m. Anticipate Dick Gibbons and Don Frantz will be the hosts. In the cast are Dave Murphy, Bob Sauer, Fred Shimmick, Walt Herdick, Dick Morgan, Jim Mosby, Noel Stooker, Steve Witt and Jim Taup. Student director is Pete Kay. Music will be handled by Bob Ketchum while Dick Willson will take charge of manual sound effects.
Next show will be a broadcast Dec. 6. It will be put on by Miss Bretteite and her music group.
THE NINTH GRADE music students attended "Tales of Hoffman," Oct. 2-3. On Nov. 10, the group will attend La Traviata, which will be given by the New York City Opera Co.
The Youth Council, an organization which coordinates young people activities met Nov. 7 at the Community House. Barnum student representatives are Mary Lou Pomeroy, Kermit Fogan, seventh grade; Martha Stevenson and Bill Seldon, eighth; and Nora R. Kacharian and Larry Lundberg, ninth. Miss Muriel Brusie is Barnum faculty representative.
Mary Lou Pomeroy was appointed to work on a committee for making a directory of student activities. It will include events for each grade and meeting time of each.
Nora Kacharian was named to work on a committee to draw up a Youth council constitution.
Annie magazine sale started Nov. 7 and will continue until Nov. 16. A representative from the group will be at the school for the next day's assembly. Every student who sells $10 worth of subscriptions will have his name put in a box for the drawing for a new bike.
THE STUDENT COUNCIL receives a percentage of all money made on the sale. Prices are given to students receiving certain number of points. Librarian Miss Jane Ward will handle money turned in.
There is a total of $480.92 in the student council treasury. Barnum received $60.00 for the Torch Drive. Miss Ward asked the group to give Tom Beck, Bill Story and Marvin Green, standing rate, of confidence for their work in counting money received for the drive.

Nichols School Defeats Cranbrook Soccer Team 3-1

A spirited soccer team of the Nichols School Buffalo, N. Y., defeated Cranbrook's Varsity squad Saturday 3-1. The Cranes, who had journeyed to Buffalo Friday, were held to one goal on a field covered with six inches of snow.

FINAL SCORE

was made in the third period when George Howe, center-forward of Nichols, booted the ball past Cranbrook goalie, Phil LeMessurier. The wetness of the snow, particularly in front of both goals, made it difficult for either team to climax offensive drives with a score.
Cranbrook will entertain Chatham Vocational School of Chatham, Ont., Saturday in this fall in the season's last game.
Following three weeks of elimination play, the Cranbrook School fall tennis tournament winners were decided Saturday afternoon. Shave Emmons a newcomer from Dayton, Ohio, won the singles crown by defeating Ted Price of Salem, Ohio, 6-2, 6-2.
Emmons, a freshman, copped the Dayton City championships last year.
Doubles championships was won by Stephen Stubbs of Birmingham and Price, who defeated Sanford Kaplan and Emmons, 6-4, 6-2.
Two leading contenders for Varsity positions next spring were unable to compete in this fall's tournament. Dave Milbrand was ailing from a shoulder injury incurred this summer, and Arizo a State's singles champion, Jerry Flores, hurt his knee early in the season.

A LESSON EVERY CHILD SHOULD LEARN

Two of the most important things you can teach your child are the value of money and the habit of saving it systematically. A savings pass book in your child's name provides a worthy outlet for the collecting "instinct" most children have. Gives him an incentive to see his balance grow. And the story of interest earned by his money is a valuable business lesson, too.
Help your child open his own account, to grow with him, at this friendly bank. One dollar will start him.
