GEORGE A. GILLETTE, 815 Hazelwood (center) received a check for $200 for his suggestion to improve handling of material in the Dearborn Motors warehouse from J. J. Dzorni (left), manager of distribution control. Gillette's supervisor, Eugene H. Zellen, looks on. The suggestion to patfetize Ford tractor mufflers for easier handling is the first to win a cash award from the corporation.

PTA Open House
In observance of the 21st annual American Education Week, the Franklin PTA meeting next Wednesday, Nov. 14, will be an open house event. Marjorie D. Wilson, principal of Franklin school, is in charge of the program, which will begin promptly at 8 p.m. Mrs. John Hill will speak on "A Parent Sees the School."
Parents, whether they are PTA members or not, are invited to the meeting and Year of the school. Room mothers and their husbands will be in charge.
Mrs. Preston Baxter is in charge of hospitality. Mrs. Harlow Bates and Mrs. Harry Rotters are in charge of refreshments to be served after the meeting.

Gold when they met at her home on Briarcliff road last Wednesday for an afternoon of sewing in preparation for the forthcoming bazaar at Holy Name church in Birmingham.
Weekend guests of the Stanley Krentel's at their home on Dundee drive were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Foster of East Lansing. The Krentel's were hosts at a dinner at Devon Gardens Sunday to honor the Foster's on their 44th wedding anniversary.
Mrs. Krentel, who was chairman of the annual Country Fair held last Saturday, will be hostess at a luncheon today for the women of the Friendly Circle who were in charge of various booths at the fair. Her guests are to be Mesdames Ralph Woodburn, Harold Roschery, Fred Warden, Gloria Shoemaker, Roy Jones, Duane Larkins, Win Hinman, Clifford Baugh, H. F. Barth, L. J. Roberts, C. J. Seaver, Von Polhemus, William Hyland and Kenneth Nichols.

Choir Festival
The choir of the Franklin Community church will be among area choirs participating in the Festival of Chorus to be held at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 11, at the First Methodist church in Ypsilanti. The affair is open to the public.
Meetings
The Friendly Circle will meet at 12:30 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 14, at the home of Mrs. L. J. Roberts, Franklin road, for a dessert luncheon. The program committee has arranged for Mrs. Max Williams of Royal Oak to show pictures of Guatemala and describe her travels in that country. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. G. J. Seaver and Mrs. Paul Ziegler.
A musical program has been planned for the Discussion Group when it meets at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Baugh, Crestwood drive, at 8:00 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 18.
The Evening Circle will meet on Thursday evening, Nov. 15, at 8:15 p.m., at the home of Mrs. E. G. Dick Lewis, 20845 Crestwood drive.
The next regular meeting of the Franklin Community Association will be held at 8:00 p.m., next Monday evening at the community hall.
Company "A" of the Franklin volunteer fire department will meet at the fire house at 10:00 a.m. this Sunday, Nov. 11.

From where I sit . . . by Joe Marsh
"Talks Turkey" — Long Distance
Some people chuckled when Sonny Plaber rented a home recording machine to record the noise his flock of turkeys make.
"I sent the recording to a buyer for a super-market chain," Sonny said. "I told 'em 'My turkeys speak for themselves—listen to this record!' They not only took my birds, but bought the record!"
"Why did they want the record?" he asked him. "Very simple," he says. "They're going to play it over the loud speakers in their stores—and then an announcer on another record reminds the customers that turkeys are plentiful and a good buy."
From where I sit, it's not always smart to make fun of someone just because he does things a little differently. I think a glass of beer in the most refreshing beverage there is. You — or Sonny — may prefer something else. But who's to decide one's right and the other's wrong? Let's stay "on record" that everyone's entitled to his own tastes and opinion.
