Special Clean-up
 The social service committee of the Women's club held its first meeting Thursday evening at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Roland Walton. They will work with the Oakland County Welfare department and will collect old clothing or household furnishings. Call Mrs. Martin Wade, Mrs. Edw. Stintz, Mrs. John Woodman and Mrs. Harry Bedford for pick-up.

Welfare Collection
 The committee is self supporting and will raise money for baskets for the needy at Christmas and for CARE packages. Mrs. Wade is the treasurer.

Daughter Born
 Mr. and Mrs. Howard Whims announce the birth of their first daughter, Carolyn Nora, on Tues. Oct. 2. The Whims have four sons.

Garden Club
 The Garden group meets today at the home of Mrs. William Beach. They will go to see a display of African violets at the home of Dr. Harold Thompson in Southfield.

Newcomers
 Mr. and Mrs. Keith Symon and children, Judy, Fanch and Jimmy have moved into their home on the lake. They purchased the home formerly owned by George Hasset. The Symons lived in Royal Oak. He teaches physics at Wayne university. On the day that they moved in their springer presented them with 12 puppies.

Girl Scouts Meet
 Mrs. James Roberts and her fifth grade Girl Scouts held their first meeting at the school Monday afternoon. After their brief meeting they joined the sixth and seventh grade girls to rehearse for the program that they gave for the Women's club, Tuesday evening. Beverly Noch led them in their singing. Mrs. John Parkins and Mrs. Edson Stevens helped the girls with their program.

Scouts Entertain
 The Walnut Lake Women's club held its regular monthly meeting at the West Bloomfield Town hall Tuesday evening. Girl Scout campers, Sybil Hampton, Dawn Lee Karnes, Anne Fitzgerald, Virginia Smith, Karen Weaver, Leslie Stevens, Mary Roberts, Patty Hampton, Sharon Gibson,

Officers Elected By Speech Group

Birmingham Toastmasters Club has resumed its program with meetings each Tuesday evening at the Community House, following a three-months' summer recess.

Officers elected at the club's first fall meeting were Richard Baily, 1835 Maryland, president; Russell Haeger, 1789 Washington, vice-president; Robert McKenzie, 1728 Bates, secretary-treasurer; Donald Lennox, 1642 Graefield, sergeant-at-arms; John Hildebrand, 791 Elon, deputy governor; and Joe Cook, 1717 West Lincoln, educational chairman.

PURPOSE OF THE Toastmasters club, which is a chapter of the international Toastmasters organization, is inexpensive training in speech and group leadership. Members receive training through weekly practice speeches and a rotating system of group leadership, with detailed criticism and instruction.

The Birmingham club's quota of 30 members is now filled but associate memberships, affording all the training opportunities of full-fledged membership are still open.

Information about participation in Toastmasters may be obtained from any of the group's officers.

Homework's Getting Easier!

Good marks and good lighting don't necessarily go hand in hand, but good lighting does help make studying easier . . . and protects sight. Good lighting means easy seeing . . . no harmful glare, dimness and shadows. Be sure the light is right for your student . . . ask an Edison home service representative to help you.

Edison home service representatives are experts in study, reading, and general lighting. They will recommend locations for lamps or ceiling fixtures, as well as advice on the size of bulb and number of lamps and fixtures needed! There is no charge for their service . . . call your neighborhood Edison office.
