SOCIAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Mrs. Neva Fessenkemper left October 17 for Newport, Rhode Island, where she was to attend the graduation of her daughter, Yvonne, from the Naval Training Station. Yvonne will receive her commission as an ensign in the Waves, and will be stationed with the Communication Division in New York City. Yvonne is a graduate of the University of Michigan, where she was assistant director of Stockwell Hall.

Thirteen-year-old pianist Ruth Mackler, winner of the Gabriel-wich scholarship three years ago, will be the featured performer of the program to be given at the Detroit Review Tea. The tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Laurence J. Hetzel, 816 Bates, on Saturday, October 20, for the benefit of their Welfare Fund.

State Representative and Mrs. Howard Estes of Riverock had state Senators Elwood Bonine of Vandaling, and Donald W. Gilbert of Sackinaw, as their guests for refreshments and the evening on October 15. The senators have been attending conferences on Unemployment Compensation in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Roland of Fairview road and Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson, also of Fairview road, will be hosts at a Halloween masquerade party to be held at the Roland's home Saturday evening, October 27. Seventeen couples will dance to music from a jukebox, and prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. A supper will be served later in the evening.

M. L. Deputy of Waynesboro, Virginia, arrived October 11 to be the guest of his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Lambert of Fairview. The Lamberts entertained in honor of their guest at a cocktail party in their home on Saturday night, October 13.

Mrs. Clyde Oakley of 1792 Oak will assist with the arrangements

Birmingham Students To Aid 'Blythe Spirit'

John Baldwin, Athlon college junior from Royal Oak, has been chosen for the small-lead in the college's Homecoming production of "Blythe Spirit." The farcical comedy by Noel Coward will be given on October 19 and 20 by the Players, under the direction of Dr. James W. Brock of the speech faculty.

In the supporting role of Dr. Bradford will be Max Cornell of Birmingham, a senior at the college, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Harriet P. Cornell of 3319 Townsend.

Sylvia Morris of Birmingham is make-up and costume manager. Sylvia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Morris of 1024 Suffield, and is in her senior year.
