

WITH THE Collegians

Gamma Phi Beta sorority at Northwestern University has announced the pledging of local students Carol Gilroy, a graduate of Kingswood, Francis Dewey, also a Kingswood graduate, and Barbara Cline, a graduate of Royal Oak High School. Also being pledged are Sheila McGinnis, Patricia Hogan, and Lynn Holzapfel, all of the '51 graduating class at the Shrine of the Little Flower High School.

William Ives, a June graduate of Kalamazoo College, was recently named the recipient of the Cooper Prize at the Kalamazoo College Honors Day Convocation. The prize is awarded for the best delivery of an oration by a junior or senior.

Janet Steele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Earle Steele of Madison road, has transferred to the Wayne University School of Nursing after two years at Albion College.

Peter Whiting, freshman at Hamilton College, Clinton, New York, has been pledged to the Hamilton chapter of Delta Kappa Epsilon. Peter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whiting, 715 Lake Park.

Walter S. McPhail, freshman at Denison University, Granville, Ohio, has been pledged to Sigma Chi fraternity. Walter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. McPhail of 1122 Brookwood.

Arthur B. Fairbanks, 927 Purdy, was enrolled last week as a freshman at Colgate University, following a week-long orientation period.

Sylvia Ann Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Morris of 1074 Stifffield, a senior at Albion College, has just been named program director of the campus radio station WAKR, which has recently been installed. Sylvia is majoring in elementary education at Albion.

Dean Victor A. Rappert of the College of Liberal Arts, Wayne University, has announced that Marie N. Fly and Jeremiah Jenkins are included in the group of honor students on the "Dean's List." Marie's home is at 1802 Graefield, Jeremiah lives at 827 Big Bear.

Bill Downey had his father, William D. Downey of 207 Abbey road, as his guest at the Psi Upsilon Open House for fathers and mothers held last weekend at the chapter's house in Ann Arbor. Highlight of the weekend was the banquet following the Michigan-Indiana game.

Marjorie Cruikshank, daughter of James Cruikshank, 30330 Woodhaven drive, and Martha McLeary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. McIntyre, 19215 Riverside, drive, are attending the Katherine Gibbs School in Chicago. Marjorie is a graduate of Denison University, and Martha a graduate of the Principia.

A BOX LUNCH SUPPER held in the school was enjoyed by the Quarten PTA members last week. Following the meal, members spent considerable time discussing what the organization can and should do this year, and on what school equipment it would spend its money. The group also decided to stage in the school gym six barn dances spaced over the school year. (Joe Wheeler Photo)

Rummage Sale Set To Open Oct. 25

When the "Rummage-With-A-Future" sale opens at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, October 25, at Christ Church Cathedral, it will culminate hours of work by the women of the church, who have not only been unpacking hundreds of boxes of contributions, but sorting and marking literally thousands of articles, planning rooms and displays of different types of merchandise, and providing accommodations for checking and parking.

MRS. CHARLES H. WELCH, Jr., is president of the Welches Auxiliary responsible for the sale, which provides money for extensive social service activities in Oakland County.

Mr. Richard Wagner and Mrs. Roy Stinger are chairman and vice-president of the sale. Working with them are the Mesdames Myron Snyder, Milton A. Manley, Merrill Marcan, George Miller, George Hodges, and H. G. Hamilton.

Also assisting with the sale are the Mesdames Richard Brown, Carl Moore, C. A. Todd, Will Aaron Webster, George Heidemann, J. Brall, E. W. Blom, J. B. Brazeau, Howard B. Stograft, William Dupler, Harry Metz, W. B. Hore, and Miss Barbara Moore.

The sale will include men's, women's, boys', girls' and infants' clothing, as well as furniture, household articles, glass, chinaware, rugs, jewelry, bags, gloves, shoes, and a Treasure Shop.
