Birmingham Hi-Society

By CAROL HOGSHEAD

Brisk fall days and a victorious football team are all excuses for the many parties and hayrides planned and attended by many socially minded students.

Dick Armstrong played host to a number of his friends after the Hazel Park game, Friday night. Square dancing headed the list of "things to do" with games, food, and saxophone solos following. Enjoying a treat, informal get-together were Mary Mullin, Allen Bumpus, Joy Sauerbrun, Dauli Perry, Nancy McLean, Duane Scott, Dick Turner, Molly Bumpus, Carl Hogshhead, Palmer Wood, Jim Hall, Betty Huff and Bertly Wilson.

NEARLY 100 PARTY-GOERS attended the open house at Cella Coffin's home after the game. Contrary to the usual run of parties, Cella's parents entertained the group with a skit written by Mr. Coffin. Records spun for the dancing pleasure of all, and a combination of Arvid Kallen playing the piano and good food made the evening quite complete.

Barb Lyndal, Bonnie Dayton, Peggy Giesey, Craig Kallen, Barbara Bertling, Jerry Fletcher, Ruth Wall, Millie Beck, Paul Trichell, Beverly Stradinger, Fred Eavis, Sandra Parish, Denise Baldwin, Tom Stinson and Carol Marean enjoyed themselves.

In line with her love of entertaining, Cella invited a few girls to remain for a slumber party. Peggy Giesey, Sue Anderson, Bonnie Dayton, Maridell Knights, and Judy Kirtler finished the evening with food, fun and frolic.

The Spanish club held its first meeting at the home of Carolyn Bryant. Potluck dinner consisted of Spanish rice, chili, and all of the trimmings. Marc Joslyn was elected president; Sara Dunn, vice-president; Carol Marean, treasurer; and Dianne Henderson, secretary. The group sang Spanish songs under the direction of their sponsor, Miss Virginia Lewis.

Stan Kerton was honored by the presence of four Birmingham students last Thursday night. Barb Hower, Jack Staffer, Jan McLease and Roger Hood, enjoyed his music.

Various committees are open to every student in the high school. The Piper staff will welcome new members. A make-up, stage, costume, and property committee for the play is soon to be chosen. Will you help?

KST chose Don and Ron Rolph, Bob Smith and Bruce Wallace as new members. Janet Wasson became an honorary member of CTA Saturday night.

Ambitious members of Sapphire club had a paper drive Saturday afternoon. Their work netted them a nice sum for their treasury.

That's this week's social news in brief. Until next week, remember the Torch Drive.

Headmaster Harry D. Hovey and Head Prefect John Hatch have appointed a student committee to arrange for the day's festivities. Dave Marean, of Birmingham, will act as chairman. Ken Mills, Andy Rabe, and Charles Hutchins will complete the student committee.
