

Founding fathers of the United States strongly believed that a republic could only exist if its citizens were educated truthfully regarding the various facets of living, so they established the public school system to insure that the classroom is available to all youth.

Waltham League to Sponsor Toy Sale

The Waltham League of the Redeemer Lutheran Church will sponsor a sale of reconditioned toys on November 1 and 2. The sale will be held at the showroom of Olohas and McCutcheon, 820 South Woodward, and will be open from nine until five.

The toys have been donated by the Sunday School children, who have been bringing them since last spring for League members to fix, paint, and make salable. Proceeds of the sale will be used to furnish a room for youth activities in the new Sunday School building, now under construction. Counselors Mrs. Ray Brown and Mrs. George Shave will be in charge of the sale.

Notes On Village Players' Opening

A parrot is called for as a necessary prop in the Players' performance of "Light Up the Sky" and the cast thought it unsafe, for obvious reasons, to use a live one. So a ceramic parrot, cage and all, has been obtained by Mrs. Burson Horn whose job it is to round up all properties.

Mrs. Howard Green, assistant director, is practicing in order to double for the parrot's voice, which will come from backstage.

WALTER SKINNER, whose job it is to portray Billy Rose, and Mrs. Edward Potter as Eleanor H. Hoim, are finding their roles incongruous in view of recent newspaper reports concerning the famous pair.

FORMER ACTIVE Players, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Cobb of Atlantic City, New Jersey, will return to Birmingham for a visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ivers. The Cobbs will be in the audience for the opening performance.

THE CAST, and entire staff of "Light Up the Sky" will hold their cast party on Sunday, October 28, at the Playhouse.

Oct. 12 Voice Announced

Mrs. James Edward Tanner

Sally O'Hara Wed In Noon Rites at Holy Name Church

At high noon Tuesday, October 23, Sally O'Hara and James E. Tanner, repeated their marriage vows in Holy Name church, before the Rev. Burke O'Neill of the University of Detroit.

Sally, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raphael M. O'Hara of Aspen road, chose a gown of white satin over which fell white flared lace, ornamenting the bodice, long fitted sleeves, and turn-over collar.

The V-shaped neckline was set off with illusion lace as was her elbow-length veil, which fell from a Juliet cap. The bridal bouquet was composed of stephanotis and a white orchid.

MARGARET MONROE, a former neighbor of the bride in Detroit, came from Dayton, Ohio, to be maid of honor. Her gown was blue, and she carried pink roses.

Thomas Mayberry of Detroit was best man for Jim, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tanner of Highland Park.

A breakfast for the thirty guests followed in the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

When the young Tanners left for their wedding trip to Mexico the bride was wearing a grey suit. They will make their home in Detroit on their return in November.

Speakers Scheduled by Women's Mission Union

The Women's Mission Union of the First Baptist Church in Birmingham will hold a regular church meeting on Thursday, November 1.

The morning program will begin at 10:30 with White Cross work. Luncheon will be served at 12:45, followed by the afternoon's program at 1:30.

The afternoon's theme will be "There Is Light For Darkness In Burma". The speaker, Mrs. Ralph Pearson is a foreign mission interpreter, and was secured for this meeting by the Baptist Foreign Mission Headquarters in Detroit.

Mrs. Raymond Smith will be chairman of the day. Members are urged to bring used warm clothing and bedding for shipment to the needy in Korea.

ON FRIDAY, November 2, World Community Day, the members of the Mission Union will attend a World Community Day meeting at the First Presbyterian Church at two in the afternoon.

The speaker will be Miss Jane Williams, who will fly here from Berlin, Germany for the occasion. Miss Williams has been in Holland attending a seminar planned to promote international understanding, and has traveled extensively on the continent for the last several months, gathering a picture of international conditions.

Anyone interested is invited to attend the meeting.

Photos must be submitted by noon each Friday to insure publication the following Thursday.
