Kingswood Festival Planned

This Saturday evening, The Kingswood School Cranbrook junior class will present "Look to the Rainbow" for the annual festival show. Parents and students will view the presentation at the school assembly hall.

While most of the "acts" are a carefully guarded secret, Gwen Luce and Katy Micou are vocalists and Jane Meher teams with Liz Metcalf in a dance duet. Susanne Blair is co-chairman of the program; Nancy Holmes publicity chairman; Jane Meher heads the dance program and Suzie Beadsley is in charge of the booth committee.

Audrey Braun is business manager, Joan Currie is making costumes, Susie Paterson and Andrea Snyder are in charge of lights and Martha Bemis and Nancy Wonnberger are in the chorus. Songs and dances will represent the colors of the rainbow and one of the features is a ball dance performance by Joan Palma, a member of the junior class from Honolulu.

BARNUM JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

At the Barnum student council meeting Oct. 16, pamphlets concerning the Torch drive were passed out. Council representatives are in charge of the drive in their respective homerooms. Howard Coffin took photos of the officers and members for the press club.

Halloween Dance For High School Students Planned

A dance for Birmingham high school students sponsored by the city, will be given at the Community House from 9:30 to 12:30 Halloween night.

Congress with Bonnie Dayton as chairman and Martha Brown co-chairman is in charge of organizing the dance. Peggy Giesky has secured Don Korte's band to play in the ballroom and downstairs there will be square dancing with Fred Meyers calling.

Service squad members met Oct. 14 and they were divided into four groups which will serve at alternate times. Connie McHugh was elected vice-president. Students becoming members were Bill Zedler, Ronald Sokol, Lavina Ross and Bill Fall.

The library has just added new books to its collection. They are: Climpes of Familiar Birds, Of Courage Undaunted, Amateur Guncraftsmen, How the United Nations Works, Modern Medical Discoveries, Popular Mechanics, 25 Boats You Can Build, Traveling with the Birds, Popular Mechanics, How to Tame a Fish, Field Book of Common Rocks, Poems of Children.

A dance will also be given Oct. 26 after the Port Huron football game from 10 to 12 at the Community house.
