Patricia Daly Announces Troth At Sunday Afternoon Cocktails

Guests at a cocktail party Sunday afternoon, September 30, were very much surprised to see two bride and groom figures on the mantel, instead of the one couple they had expected. For the party, given at the home of Patricia Haven Daly, was in honor of an October bride-elect, Nancy Neumann and her fiance, Walter Tenega, of Chicago. It was also the setting for the announcement of Pat's engagement to John Joseph Jennings, Jr. of Grosse Pointe.

PATRICIA HAVEN DALE

Pat is the daughter of Mrs. LeGrand Daly of Fairfax road, and the late Mr. Daly. She is a graduate of Mt. Vernon Junior College, in Washington, D.C., and the University of Michigan, where she was a member of Delta Gamma.

John, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph Jennings, formerly of Grosse Pointe and now of Ann Arbor, attended the University of Michigan. His fraternity was Sigma Phi.

The couple plan to be wed sometime after the first of the year.

Couple Celebrate 50th Anniversary Sunday Afternoon

On Sunday afternoon October 7 Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bany, of 176 East Frank street, will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary at an open house in their home.

Approximately a hundred guests will gather for the cake, punch and sandwiches which will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bany have been Birmingham residents for forty-six years. They have eight children, ten grandchildren, and one great-grandson.

'Clutterbuck' Scheduled By St. Dunstan's

Four deck chairs on a Mediterranean cruise ship provide the scene of action for much of the brittle, comic dialogue to be found in Ben Levy's farce-comedy, "Clutterbuck," which will be produced by St. Dunstan's Guild at the Cranbrook Pavilion on Friday and Saturday, October 12-13 and 19-20.

Occupants of the deck chairs, two English couples on vacation, are played by Mrs. Robert Harris, Mrs. Alan L. Gornick, Malcolm Denny, and Paul Averill. Their peaceful cruise is soon interrupted by an unusual character named Clutterbuck, a pivotal figure played by Carl Meyer.

Others rehearsing in the satire comedy under Thomas J. King's direction include Mrs. Theodore Guehing, who appears as a baby-talking former friend of the two Englishmen, and James Schneider, who plays an irrepresible waiter.

MARILYN GORHAM GOULD

FOUR OTHER PUBLIC shows have been scheduled for production by St. Dunstan's Guild in its 20th anniversary season. Eugene O'Neill's charming comedy of rebellious youth, "Ah, Wilderness," will be staged in December.

Following that, in February, the Guild will present a revival of "Yellow Jack," the powerful drama by Sidney Howard. Other plays under consideration include "The Happy Time," a comedy by Robert Fontaine, and a revival of the Pulitzer-Prize winning musical comedy, "Of Thee I Sing."

THE ENGAGEMENT of Marilyn Gorham Gould to James H. O. Page has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Gould of Buckingham road. Marilyn is a graduate of Monticello Junior College, in Godfrey, Illinois. James graduated from Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut, where he was a member of D.K.E. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Page of New Britain, Connecticut.

Have You Met... R. E. Murray and son Gary, age 14 of 1991 South Bates street. Moving here from Council Bluffs, Iowa, Mr. Murray is office manager of Trailmobile, Inc. His hobbies are sports, hunting, fishing, and bowling.
