

Double-Ring Vows Held in Clawson

A double-ring ceremony held at 7:30 Saturday evening, September 22, in the Clawson Methodist Church, joined Barbara Alice Braidwood and Richard Dale Blaisius in marriage. The couple repeated their vows by candlelight before the Rev. Reginald Becker, of the Embury Methodist Church, Birmingham.

Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Braidwood of Emmons street. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blaisius, of Davis street.

White satin formed the bodice of the bridal gown and the petal collar. A row of small white satin buttons extended to the waist and white net over satin composed the ankle-length veil of illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of a pale lavender orchid, surrounded by white stephanotis.

The bride's mother chose a gown, was gowned in a gold ankle-length net dress, topped by a matching satin jacket. Her headpiece was of gold net, and she carried a colonial bouquet of rust and gold mums.

THE BRIDE'S BROTHER, Kenneth Braidwood, served as best man, and Russell Blaisius, brother of the groom, acted as usher.

The bride's mother chose a pearl-gray tulle street-length dress for her daughter's nuptials. Her costume was accented with rhinestones and black accessories. Mrs. Blaisius was in steel gray silk crepe, accented with a wine hat and black accessories.

MRS. RICHARD BLAISUIS

Kentucky. The new Mrs. Blaisius selected a tan and check suit with brown accessories for traveling. The orchid from her bouquet was pinned to her lapel. They will be at home on Oakridge street, Ferndale on their return.

Richard Shepherd Claims Bride On Anniversary Date

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Shepherd of South Bates street, celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary on Saturday, September 29. The festivities were two-fold: a buffet supper for twenty guests was held in their home Saturday evening, and that morning their son Richard claimed Mary Carey as his bride at a 10 o'clock ceremony in the Shrine of the Little Flower, Royal Oak.

Mary is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Bernard William Carey, former Birmingham residents, now residing in Daytona Beach, Florida. The couple repeated their vows before the Rev. Krieg, with the families present.

The bride selected a street-length dress of duobonnet taffeta with lace-trimmed sleeves and a round neckline. Her hat and jewelry were gold, and she carried her usual, covered with orchids and stephanotis.

Attending the bride was her sister Margaret Carey, who wore a blue tulle, with a blue velvet hat and white gloves. She carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Jack Hawking performed the duties of best man.

Following a breakfast for the family at Adrian Cotters', the couple left on a week's motor trip through northern Michigan. The bride wore a white dress with black accessories. On their return they will make their home in Coventry Gardens, Livonia.

There's somebody outside

There's a shadowed world outside the circle of light and comfort in which most of us live. There, crippled children fight for a chance to walk, and people are sick and forsaken, and misfortune is every day's routine.

The services of the United Foundation reach deep into that world. When children are ill or neglected, they are cared for. The sightless and the aged find homes. In every affliction there is a Community Service ready to help.

To support all this work—which means so much to your city—there is just one drive for funds each year . . . the United Foundation Torch Drive. It combines 150 appeals in one, so that you can give once for all.

Won't you contribute more generously than ever when the UF volunteer solicitor calls on you? Dig way down this time. It's vital work, and this one campaign must pay for the whole long year ahead.
