BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS

Annual show of the Pied Piper Pupets will be seen at the school at 9:30 a.m., Oct. 9. This year Peppy the Puppet will have some exciting adventures with Paul Bunyan.

The enrollment has been increased by three new second graders.

MRS. EVELYN AYERS FIRST AND SECOND GRADES — Mrs. Purdy visited the reading class and heard children read from "Our Big Book". Jennifer and Gary Wiley moved into their new home at 7315 Lahser road Sept. 28.

Class officers for this week in grades four and five were: president, Jackie Paulus and vice-president, Sue Gantner.

Several class members entered a play based on the "Mama" series of television. Those in the play were Fritz Harris, Dixie Humphrey, Jackie Paulus, Michael Greer, Patsy Eakins and Mary Seyferth.

Junior defense council members from the fourth grade are Sue Gantner, Jackie Paulus and Marilyn Michaels.

Fifth grade members are Linda Stevenson, Claire Miller and Peter Beardsley; instructor Edwin Crandall has charge of the council.

FIFTH AND SIXTH GRADE NEWS — Sixth grade representatives to the school Junior defense council are Pat Henny, Carol Green and Jeff Crawford. Penny Greer and Mary Sinter attend the Birmingham Junior defense council meetings which will be held once every month.

Student Ticket Sale Successful

BY CAROL HOGSHEAD

Sale of student season football tickets ended successfully with a total of 77.5% sold.

On a class competition basis, juniors received the grand total of 86.6%. Sophomores finished second with 77.7% and the seniors trailed with only 67.7%.

Exempt from the sale were 140 students, including cheerleaders, varsity and reserve teams, members of the band and field workers.

Tickets were sold at the ticket price of $2, admitting the holder to five home games played at Pierce field.

WALNUT LAKE NEWSLETTER

Everyone is busy climbing on the Jungle gym. This is the playground equipment which the PTA helped to purchase for the school.

Thursday afternoon, third grade children and their teacher, Miss Nola Tinsley, hiked to Donny Pine's home on Middlebelt road. They observed the signs of fall and saw the horses at the Palmers. After some snacks they returned to school in time for dismissal.

All children are busily collecting papers for the paper drive. The dates are Oct. 8 to 12 and all papers and magazines must be secured in small bundles. The committee for this drive consists of Bobby Sinter, Billy Nuch, Judy Sandstrom and Deanna Huech.

Officers Elected By InterClub Council at Baldwin

By DICK EMERY

The Birmingham inter club council, composed of the president and one representative from each school club held its first meeting of the year Wednesday at the high school to formulate general club bulletins board and inform members of the public address system.

Bud De Loria was elected chairman and Sara Dunn secretary. Mrs. Carol Darling, faculty adviser announced that all club notices should be posted on the club bulletin board and inform members of the public address system.

PRINCIPAL ROSS A. WAGNER requested that the advisory council suggest that no club party be held outside the Birmingham school district. A committee of one member of each club was appointed to set up regulations concerning these parties.

Mrs. Darling suggested that the fledgling period be shortened and it was reduced from six to five weeks.
