Singing Groups Meet Each Day At High School

By VIRGINIA ROBERTSON
Singing ensembles, conducted by Victor Ulrich and meeting once a week after regular school hours from 3:30 to 4:45, have now been organized at Birmingham high school.
Every Tuesday, Phyllis Abbott, Shirley Abbott, Carol Dorman, Sylvia Chalk, Cella Coffin, Carol Middleton, Nancy Atchley, Ruth Jambrowsky, Judy Shores, Carol Cowgill, Mariette Lawson, and Joan Hefflin meet to sing and learn new songs.
Shella Traynor, Barbara Bigge, Mary Christon, Barbara Klemm, Beverly Strangner, Sidney McNary, Louise Henderbott, and Nancy Gilliam meet Wednesdays. Members of the Thursday group are Carol Baker, Sharon Stanton, Louisa Roberts, Sue Sloat, Lea Mae Marsh, Joan Masterton, and Jane Kaster.
The mixed group with Stuart Leslie, Robert Paulus, Bruce Carlisle, Dave Morgan, Larry McCracken, Jodie Sawyer, Alice Basford, Janet Wasson, and Judy Burdette meets Fridays.
"These groups are organized," Mr. Ulrich said, "with the thought that they will continue through the entire school year as they always have in the past. They are now organized for one special program or musical festival."
He also stated that their greatest activity occurs at Christmas and in the late spring, when there are so many requests for their services at various community affairs.
Ulrich announced the three girls' groups will combine with the girls' glee club to form a large organization performing on two or three occasions.
"If present plans can be carried through the year," he concluded, "these groups will do a concert sometime next May."

Maple Harriers Drop 22-34 Meet To Walled Lake
By ERIC DAVISON
Birmingham's cross country squad got off to a slow start Tuesday, dropping the season's first meet to Walled Lake 22-34.
First of the 32 starters to finish was Glen Powell of Walled Lake. He was followed closely by Birmingham's Tom Leneane, who was trailing by six seconds.
Maple harriers were running one, two, and four at the mile mark but just couldn't maintain the pace and gave way to Walled Lake runners who captured six of the first 10 places.
Powell ran the two mile course in 11:36; Leneane was second in 11:12; third, Naugle (WL) 11:18; fourth, Combs (WL) 11:28; fifth, Yates 11:29; sixth, McDowell (WL) 11:30; seventh, Lewis (B) 11:40; eighth, Smith (WL) 11:41; ninth, Harris (B) 11:48; tenth, Agne (WL) 11:49.
Next meet will run Friday at Port Huron.

RAY DENNIS, of the Birmingham Eccentric, talked to members of the press club Thursday, Sept. 27. He gave some of the most important rules to remember when writing newspaper articles. After his talk, members of the club asked questions concerning writing for a newspaper. The "how and why" of photography for publicity was of vital concern to photography enthusiasts.
The service squad had its second meeting for the new members Sept. 21 under the supervision of William Clarke.
Purpose of this meeting was to assign the new members to posts and elect a secretary. Carol Rose was elected secretary and the new members who have been assigned posts are Sharon Gray, Charlotte Robertson, Carolyn Killing, Pat Davis, Beverly Lamb, Nancy Brockman, Kay Foler, Beverly Heath, Joy Fortune, Carol Brindine, Kay Madonna, and Beatrice Snyder.
New teachers at Barnum are Principal J. A. MacTavish, Miss Joan Dodd, Miss Margaret Schrot, and William Clarke.
Mr. MacTavish is a graduate of Ohio State University and has done graduate work at Princeton university. He has had twelve years experience in school administration. He has also served four years in the Navy as an educational service officer.

Cranbrook Soccer Team Takes 2-1 Win Over Chatham

The Cranbrook varsity soccer team opened its 1951 season successfully by defeating Chatham Collegiate institute in a game at Chatham, Ont. 2-1.
Outstanding for the Cranbrook booters were Fullback, John Hatch and Right half-back, Jim Studler who scored both of Cranbrook's goals. Blue and gray goalie Phil LeMessurier, playing in his first varsity game, was outstanding in the nets. For the Chatham eleven, Jack Grouch, goalie, made a number of fine saves which held the score of Cranbrook's victory.
Collegiate scored first in the second period and held the lead to the half time. However, Cranbrook came from behind to knot the score in the third period. The winning goal came on the boot by John Hatch in the final quarter.
Cranbrook opens its home soccer season Saturday morning, Oct. 6 at 10 a.m. in a game against Lake Forest academy of Lake Forest, Ill.
