WOODWARD at 14 MILE ROAD

THIS SCENE WAS repeated some 800 times last Thursday, Friday and Saturday as Birmingham youngsters brought their bikes to the Caltrider car lot on South Woodward for the annual bike inspection. Backed by the Kiwanis club, in cooperation with the Birmingham police department, the inspection is held each year as a safety promotion campaign for young riders. All vehicles must meet road-safety requirements before a license is issued permitting their use on the city streets. Kiwanis members managed the inspection and presented safety reflectors for each vehicle. Although less than half of the expected number reported, others will have until Sept. 22, National Kids' Day, to take advantage of this free bicycle check-up. (Joe Wheeler Photo)
