Smith-Pierce Rites By Candlelight

Eight o'clock Saturday evening, September 8, was the time and date selected by Ann Pierce for her marriage to Ben S. Smith. Rev. William H. Mead performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 300 guests at Christ Church Cranbrook. Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Pierce and Ben is the son of Mrs. A. Tuttle Smith of Fort Meyers, Fla. and the late Mr. Smith.

For the candlelight service the bride selected a gown of deep ivory satin and chantly lace. The bodice and long sleeves were lace as was her mauve Dutch cap which held her veil of illusion. She carried a crescent arrangement of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth, Jr. of Kalamazoo, was her sister's matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul W. Sells, Jr. of Chicago, another sister of the bride, Betty Lou Wise of Scarsdale, N. Y., Mrs. Alan Thayer of Dearborn, sister of the bridegroom and Peggy Labadie of Farmington.

THE ATTENDANTS were gown-ed alike in waist-length emerald green net. The strapless bodices were covered with short circular capes of matching velvet. Their tiny caps were of variegated green velvet leaves, their satin pumps were emerald green and their crescent shaped bouquets were unique arrangements of chateaux fugi mums with a background formed of deffenbachia leaves.

Mrs. Pierce was attractively dressed in grey tissue taffeta with a bodice of alencon lace. Her tiny hat was of mauve felt with a rhinestone dotted veil. Her corsage was pink stephanotis.

Mrs. Smith selected a gown of aqua lace and chiffon. Her small hat of felle matched her gown and her flowers were lavender orchids.

HOWARD SNYDER of Detroit performed the duties of best man and the guests were escorted to their seats by Robert Fife, Marshall Potter, Harry A. McDonald, Jr., Edwin N. Feabody and Thomas O. Malia.

Following the reception at the Detroit Golf Club the newly-weds departed for a honeymoon trip to The Greenbrier in West Virginia. When they return they will live in Ann Arbor where Mrs. Smith will finish school at the University of Michigan.

Royal Oak Moms Club

The Royal Oak Moms' Club, Unit Five, will hold their social meeting at 8 o'clock Tuesday, Sept. 18 at the Royal Oak Woman's Club.

They will have as their guests their national president, Mrs. Kenneth Foust, and the officers of her board, the Michigan state president, Mrs. Mae Jones, and the respective members of her board. Mrs. Grace Porter, program chairman of the Royal Oak Unit, has planned a program at which the Royal Oak Librarian, Mrs. Roger A. Palmer, will speak on the topic "Class House of Prejudice". There will be a vocalist with her accompanist.

The Royal Oak Moms cordially invite all friends to this special occasion.

LUXURY

King Farouk and his bride, with all the millions at their command, will never live in a more luxurious home than this. All that modern American "know-how" and lots of good American money can do, has been done to make this a superlative home.

Here are some of the facts:

The living room is amazingly attractive, measuring 16' x 28' and has a beamed ceiling 16 feet high.

The dining room measures 9' 6" x 12'.

The kitchen is one of the finest we have ever seen, and we real estate people see a lot of them. St. Charles metal cabinets, Hotpoint Dishwasher and Disposal Units, Lovely Marlite walls and ceiling, Formica cabinet tops, rubber tile floor—these details denote the very, very best.

Two lovely bedrooms, one 15' x 17', and the other 12' x 15' are served by a beautiful bath with tub and stall shower, all fixtures in peach color.

Separate lavatory of finest materials. Maid's room on second floor.

There is a splendid porch 12' x 26' overlooking the garden. Full, dry basement. Finest hot water heating equipment—gas-fired. All copper plumbing. Stover water softener.

This house is like a very fine diamond or a lovely mink coat. If you want the best, here it is.
