The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bettrun Cox, wore gown of white satin with a fitted bodice which dipped just below the waistline, off-shoulder neckline edged in lace and a yoke of illusion, and long fitted sleeves. Her Juliet cap was trimmed with seed pearls, and her veil was fingertip length. The bridal bouquet was of white gladiolus and stephanotis. Phyllis Cox served as her sister's maid of honor. Her dress was of blue satin with matching elbow length mitts. Her flowers were pink and blue gladiolus.

MRS. JOHN MICHAEL

The groom, on leave from the U. S. Army, was attended by Del Adams and Edward Ball of Birmingham. William Schermerhorn was the best man. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael of Milford, Indiana.

The bride's mother wore a grey sheer gown. Mrs. Michael was dressed in navy crepe, and both wore tubular liques.

The bride's parents were hosts at a dinner at Devoe Gables for the immediate families preceding the ceremony. A reception following the rites were held at the Cox home.

Candlelight Setting for Vows

Carol Elizabeth Allmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Allmon of 2975 Oakland drive, and John E. Jamieson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jamieson of Detroit, related their vows before the Rev. Arnold Runkel in a candlelight service held at the First Methodist Church Saturday, September 1.

The bride's gown featured a white-satin brocade bodice with a net yoke, accented with scalloped sleeves and neckline. Her ballerina dress skirt consisted of several layers of nylon net with an overlay of scalloped lace. Her Juliet cap was of Mat Chang lace and her fingertip veil was of illusion lace. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white orchids.

The groom, Wilfred and David Jamieson, and Glen Cahoon, a reception following the rites was held in the Allmon home. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allmon from Peoria, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cates and Miss Shirley Cates of Joliet, Ill., and Mr. Leo Allmon of New York.

On their departure for two weeks in Northern Michigan the bride wore a coral shantung suit with black velvet accessories. The couple will reside in Detroit upon their return.
