Flying to Scotland
Mrs. Richard Rutledge, who makes her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Burr of Lucerne drive, will leave on Sept. 19 flying to Prestwick, Scotland, for an extended stay. She will visit her brother and three sisters and several other relatives.

Social Notes
Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tully on Riverview road were Mrs. Tully's sister and nephews, Mrs. John Wolf, Ronnie and Bill, here from Toronto.

The Edwin Casenhizers of Whatley road were hosts last Saturday night to Mr. and Mrs. L. C. White and Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Sampson, all of Detroit. After cocktails at their home, the Casenhizers took their guests to dinner at the Fox and Hounds and to the play "Over 21" at Wil-G-Way.

Mrs. Mel Mitchell and children Bob and Beverly have been visiting in Chicago at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Funda. They returned to their Colby lane home last week.

Home after a two week vacation at Hot Springs, Va., are the S. Z. Kowalski's and children Kenneth and Benny. They stayed at the Homestead, where they were joined by Dr. and Mrs. M. Brozyna and the A. Charskys from New York.

House guests at the Riverwood road home of the William Harworths are Mrs. Preston Cannon and daughter Patricia of the San Fernando Valley, Cal.

House guests of the George Kuzels, Mrs. and Mrs. William Klaus, who here from San Antonio, Tex., for a visit, have joined the Kuzels in flying to Lost Creek Sky ranch for a vacation in Northern Michigan.

Franklin Miscellany
John Fricker, a reservist of the third naval district, has been recalled and will report in New York in November for active duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville DeView, who have made their home in Franklin for many years, have just moved into their new place in Birmingham.

The P. S. Heenans, until recently residents of North Branch, Mich., are making their home now with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kasten of Mountain View lane.

Collegians
Gordon Converse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Converse, Jr., will enter Alma College as a freshman this fall.

Enrolled in Wayne as a freshman is Raymond Fracassi, son of the Ray Fracassi's on Lahser road. Mary Alice Cockerill, daughter of the Eric Cockerills of Old Court, is to be a senior at Western Michigan college in Kalamazoo.

Meetings
The Franklin Community association met last Monday night for the season's kick-off meeting. Members of the prayer circle of the Franklin Community church will meet at the home of Mrs. Haskell Wright, 17100 Telegraph road, at 2:30 p.m. next Wednesday. A dessert luncheon will be served.

The Evening circle will hold its September meeting at 8:15 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 20, at the Opid Court home of Mrs. John Holmes. Ste. Anne's Guild, the Franklin area chapter of the guild of Holy Name church will open its fall session Tuesday, Sept. 25, meeting at 12:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Mel Mitchell, 6701 Colby lane. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Edwin Casenhizer and Mrs. George Kuzel. An after-luncheon dessert course will be served, followed by a business meeting.

Birthday
Christine Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dick Lewis, celebrated her 12th birthday last Saturday, being hostess to a group of young friends for a wicker roast and an afternoon of games. Dinner guests of the Lewis' that evening included Christine's party guests, relatives from Detroit and Birmingham, weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Lewis, from Columbus, Ohio, and current house guests, M. Sgt. and Mrs. William Edlison of Washington, D.C.

Welcome, Neighbor
Mr. and Mrs. Eric Opitz and children Bobby and Judith have moved from Pleasant Ridge into their new home on Hamble road. Opitz is with the Fisher Body Division in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Cockerill and children Bob and Mary Alice, former Detroiters, are in their new home on Old Court. Cockerill is a sales distributor. Bob is a graduate of Lincoln Chiropractic College in Indianapolis.

YMCA Secretaries Attend Conference At Camp Ohyesa

Approximately 75 YMCA secretaries from Metropolitan Detroit

YMCA branches convened at Camp Ohyesa this week for a three-day training program in preparation for the celebration of the Detroit YMCA Centennial in 1963. Theme of the conference and planning session was "Getting Ready for the Second Century." W. Ralph Hileman, general secretary of the Detroit YMCA, related plans for increased membership expansion and additional facilities. Birmingham branch was represented by its secretary, Edwin F. Kirbert.

The winding curvilinear roads in Lathrup Village were laid out to restrict fast traffic.
